93rd YEAR No. 43

FIFTEEN CENTS

More to come? So far, more than 100 inches of snow

As of last Friday, 103.7 inches of snow has been dumped on the village, breaking the 100-inch mark of the white stuff for the 1978-79 snow season.

And Tom Robinson, official weather observer in Antioch for the National Weather Service, said "We're probably not through with it (snow) yet. I think we're still going to get some more."

Robinson has been pretty accurate in his predictions for the season so far, and some of his co-workers said they have "a knife at his throat" if he says we'll get any more snow.

Last Friday, .88 inches of precipitation were dropped on the village, and Robinson said it counted as snow "because it came down as snow. Whether it melted once it hit ground doesn't count."

This year's snow accumulation breaks all records for the village. Last year, Antioch had the biggest accumulation prior to that, with 82 inches of flakes.

Robinson added that last year, the village had 118 consecutive days of one inch or more of snow on the ground, and Antioch broke that record this year with 120 days of snow on the ground.

Also, he said the month of April has been about three degrees colder than the average temperature for the month, with a mean of about 45 degrees.

April showers?

WE MAY HAVE EXPECTED a bit of rain in this traditional month of showers, but not many bargained for the sleet and snow that was dumped on Antioch Friday, causing everybody to pull their winter coats back out of the closet. (News photo by Sue Nasenbeny)

'Overwhelming response' for 'Mom of the Year' contest

An "overwhelming response" has been received in the first-ever "Mother of the Year" essay contest sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Dixie Sparks, executive secretary of the Chamber, said entries have poured in by the hundreds from children in Antioch Grade schools, each explaining in about 25 words why they think their mom is the greatest.

"The Chamber is really grateful to the schools for the tremendous response, interest and enthusiasm in the contest. Without the help of the teachers, we could not have had such a wonderful response," she added.

Monday was the deadline for all essays, with entries being judged this week. Winners will be notified this weekend with pictures of the winning "Mom of the Year" and her child appearing in next week's Antioch News, along with the winning essay.

Students who live in Antioch from first through eighth grade were eligible for the contest.

The winning mom will be showered with a huge assortment of more than 50 prizes, including free dinners, shows, gifts and gift certificates donated by Antioch merchants and businesses.

The contest is the brainchild of Don Marski of Ben Franklin, who is head of the Retail Committee coordinating it. Other members of coordinating committee include co-chairwomen Lois Clark and Susan Siwula of Park Avenue Gallery.

Mrs. Sparks said the purpose of the contest was to "help the children think about how they felt about their moms and what they mean to them."

Ksioszk, Kenyon elected to St. Peter's board

An incumbent and a newcomer were elected to St. Peter's School Board April 21 and 22 after Saturday and Sunday Masses.

Fran Ksioszk was re-elected and gathered the most votes with 116, and first-timer Pat Kenyon was elected with 99 votes.

High school board okays graduation date

The Antioch High School board approved the last day for students for the 1978-79 school year to be Thursday, June 7. Commencement is set for Sunday, June 10th, at 3:30 p.m. in the North Gym.

Incumbent Steve Rzyso's term had expired and since he served two previous terms on the school board, could not run for re-election, school officials said.

School board members had an opportunity to inspect a cutaway model of the proposed concession stand planned for the athletic field. The model was constructed by student James Heischberg from drawings by James Nikolai. Both are students in Roland Schleusener's architectural drawing class.

Vote totals of the remaining school board candidates were as follows: Bob Gagnon, 88; Bruce Pagni, 56; Ted Burbridge, 39.

A total of 220 St. Peter's parishioners voted in the election, including absentee ballots.

Ksioszk and Kenyon will serve three-year terms.

You know that New Year's resolution I made regarding consistency with my column? As you can see I broke it. There's no sense making this year's resolution any different than the past.

SANDY NORWOOD, owner of Hair Designs Unlimited, has been busy again.

If you know Sandy like I do, you know she just can't sit still. So now she has taken on a new line of facial products by Aloe-Mist. And Sandy had the nerve to tell me it could even help my peaches and cream complexion.

Anyway, Sandy says you will definitely be able to see the results after the first application.

I LOVE THE professional look the Park Avenue Mall's walk-way has achieved.

The awning and expertly-styled sign allows shoppers on Main Street to know what is located back in the Mall.

LOTS OF EXCITING changes at Harbor Ridge Country Club.

The main thing Jim wants everyone to know is that the country club is open to the public and everyone is invited out to play.

The whole idea behind CHECK-N-CHARGE is to give you a line of credit to use with your State Bank of Antioch checking account. It's as simple as that - checking with a built-in balance that is ready and waiting when you need it ... just write a check in excess of your checkbook balance for the amount you need, and you have written your own private loan ... no need to reapply and no trip in to see us each time you need money. Repayment is in sensible monthly installments, and as you pay off your loan balance, your available credit renews itself. A house divided

Editor:

The recent election of the Antioch Grade School Board, District 34, has left some sore spots, as many elections do. Anyone running for a seat on the School Board would have greater understanding and insight into the problems and grievances of that Board, if they could take the time and effort to acquaint themselves with the operations of that Board.

School Board meetings are open to the public. A regular attendance of these meetings, with an open mind, would provide much toward the understanding and insight mentioned above.

In the nine years I served on the Antioch Grade School Board, I know of only two people who took advantage of the privilege to attend Board meetings - regularly - with the thought of running for the Board. Both of these people were later elected, and served the community in good faith. It takes a long time for anyone to become a "good" School Board Member - just as it takes a long time to train for any responsible position.

The present Antioch Grade School Board has been severely criticized, for several different things. It appears to me that the people making these accusations are doing so from a lack of knowledge. They speak of reforming the Board, of just what the Board should and should not do with district monies, of what they would do if elected. On a Board of seven members, one voice cannot make many changes.

A house divided against itself cannot stand - and a divided School Board can never accomplish the mountain of work that assails and threatens to overwhelm it. How much better it would be, for all concerned, if people would support the Board, rather than try to tear it down.

Very truly yours,
Mildred A. LaPlant

McClory sets criminal justice conference

Congressman Robert McClory (R-13th, Illinois), the ranking Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, in cooperation with the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission, is sponsoring a day-long Criminal Justice Conference this Friday at the Gurnee Holiday Inn.

The Conference, scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. will be highlighted by prominent federal and local law enforcement officials.

Participants in the morning session will hear from James Adams, the associate director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Peter Bensinger, the administrator of the Drug Enforcement Agency. Adams will be introduced by Dennis Ryan, the Lake County State's Attorney.

Also addressing the morning session will be Congressman McClory; Andrew Principe, the Chairman of the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission; and Daniel Weil, the Chairman and Acting Executive Director of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission.

The afternoon session will be addressed by G.R. (Bob) Dickerson, the director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; and Henry S. Dogin, the administrator of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. Introducing Dickerson will be Chief Sam Johns of the Crystal Lake Police Department.

The speakers will discuss the federal government's criminal justice programs and possible directions for future activity. A particular focus of the conference will be on ways in which federal and local officials can work cooperatively in their joint efforts to reduce the country's growing crime problem.

Specific topics for discussion will include the problems of arson, drug abuse, crime prevention and programs directed against the trafficking in stolen and black market firearms.

Congressman McClory welcomed the holding of the conference in the 13th Congressional District, saying, "This conference will give top federal and local law enforcement problems we face in fighting crime. Local police and criminal justice officials, as well as all interested private citizens should take advantage of this unique opportunity."

Further information on the conference is available by calling Barbara Drabek-Doyle of the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission, 602 County Building, Waukegan, 689-6471.

There is no charge for the conference. However, lunch tickets cost $6 and reservations should be made in advance.

Transfer of special ed students discussed by board

Whether Grade School District 34 students will be transferred from Antioch Lower Grade School to Channel Lake School next fall was scheduled to be discussed at last night's board of education meeting.

Several parents of the district's special education students had presented a petition to the school board at its last meeting requesting that the board not transfer the students, citing that it would negatively affect their children and that they were opposed to busing the students out of town.

Supt. Donald Skidmore said in his notes to the board that he had researched the issue through reading all the psychologicals of the students to discover more information about them and how the move might affect them.

Also, he met with principals of district schools to discuss the transfer, including alternatives.

"On the basis of what I read, a case might be made for one student who could be negatively affected by the movement.

However, in checking with Harley Ware, (principal of Antioch Grade School) I discovered the one child would not be involved in the move if one class remained at Antioch Grade School," Skidmore reported.

Also, he said, after discussing the matter with school principals, "the best plan, if students were to be moved, would be to move the LOP 2 (Learning Opportunities) class from Antioch and the LD 1 (Learning Disabilities) class from Oakland to Channel Lake, and to move the LOP 1 classes to Oakland."

He added that because classes are not completely staffed for next year he could not give the exact composition of the classes yet.

However, he said most of next year's LD 1 class will come from the current LOP 2 class and most of the LOP 2 class will consist of students now in LOP 1 and in the other LOP 2 classes.

Another option Skidmore brought out was keeping the classes where they are and running a partial library program from a classroom next year.

Skidmore recommended that the LD 1 and one LOP 2 class be moved to Channel Lake School to facilitate the opening of the library at Antioch Grade School.

One LOP 1 class would be kept at Antioch and the other class would be moved to Oakland, he added.

The second option he recommended was to keep the students where they are and run a temporary library facility in a classroom.

The school board was scheduled to discuss the various options and try to come up with a solution last night.

ALSO AT LAST night's meeting, the board was scheduled to decide whether to:

- Approve a summer band program for fourth through eighth graders.

Skidmore recommended that the board approve the band program since the district's insurance company would cover the program including out-of-district students if it was handled as it has been in the past.

The board had tabled the issue last week pending clarification of the insurance issue.

- Reimburse all school district employees who must use their car as part of their employment at the rate of 20 cents per mile for the 1979-80 school year.

Skidmore recommended the rate after researching figures released by the American Automobile Association. According to that agency, the cost of operating an average intermediate size car rose seven percent this year over 1978.

- Purchase Elk Grove School District 59's two libraries, including more than 11,000 books, plus card catalogs and complete shelving at a cost of $20,000. Skidmore had recommended that the board approve the purchase.

- Approve spending up to $9,000 for a security system for the new W.C. Petty School.

Skidmore explained that District 34 "has had good luck with security systems." Before the Upper Grade School had installed a security system, much vandalism had occurred at the school.

But since the installation of the security system, he said "the percentage has been about zip" for break-ins and vandalism.

Also at the meeting, Skidmore was scheduled to report on the budget for the new W.C. Petty School.

In his notes he said a contingency fund of $77,948 was placed in the budget for unexpected or additional costs. Thus far, all of the change orders authorized amounted to $27,000.

Skidmore said whatever remains of the fund upon completion of the school will be refunded proportionately to the district.

Also, he reported that enrollment totals for kindergarten pre-registration for this fall were: Channel Lake, 7, Antioch Grade, 36 and Oakland, 69.

Police may cooperate in radio communications system

and Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

Re-elected trustees William Seemann, Arnold Weber and Edgar Simonsen will be officially sworn in at the May 7 village board meeting.

Also, at the meeting:

- Village Attorney Andrew Lynch was instructed to review the application for a grant in an inter-agency agreement with four other area villages, Fox Lake, Lake Villa, Grayslake and Lindenhurst, for a radio network communications system with the respective police departments.

Police Chief Chuck Miller explained that the system is "very good" and would include equipping each police department with five personal portable radios.

Each policeman on duty would then have access to the department dispatcher at all times and could call for assistance without having to go back to the squad car, Miller said.

- Mike Tucker, of Lakewood Drive in Oakwood Knolls subdivision, alerted the board to a "potential health hazard" in a vacant lot adjacent to him which was not drained properly, he said.

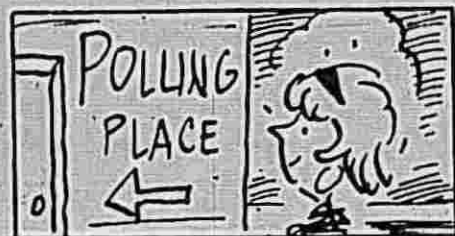

The lot, owned by Mrs. Bernard Freeman of Park Ridge, should be filled and maintained properly, Tucker said, to ensure the safety and health of his 18-month-old daughter.

Tucker said he had contacted Mrs. Freeman in the past but has had no results.

Mayor Michael Haley said he would contact the public works department to find out what can be done to solve the problem.

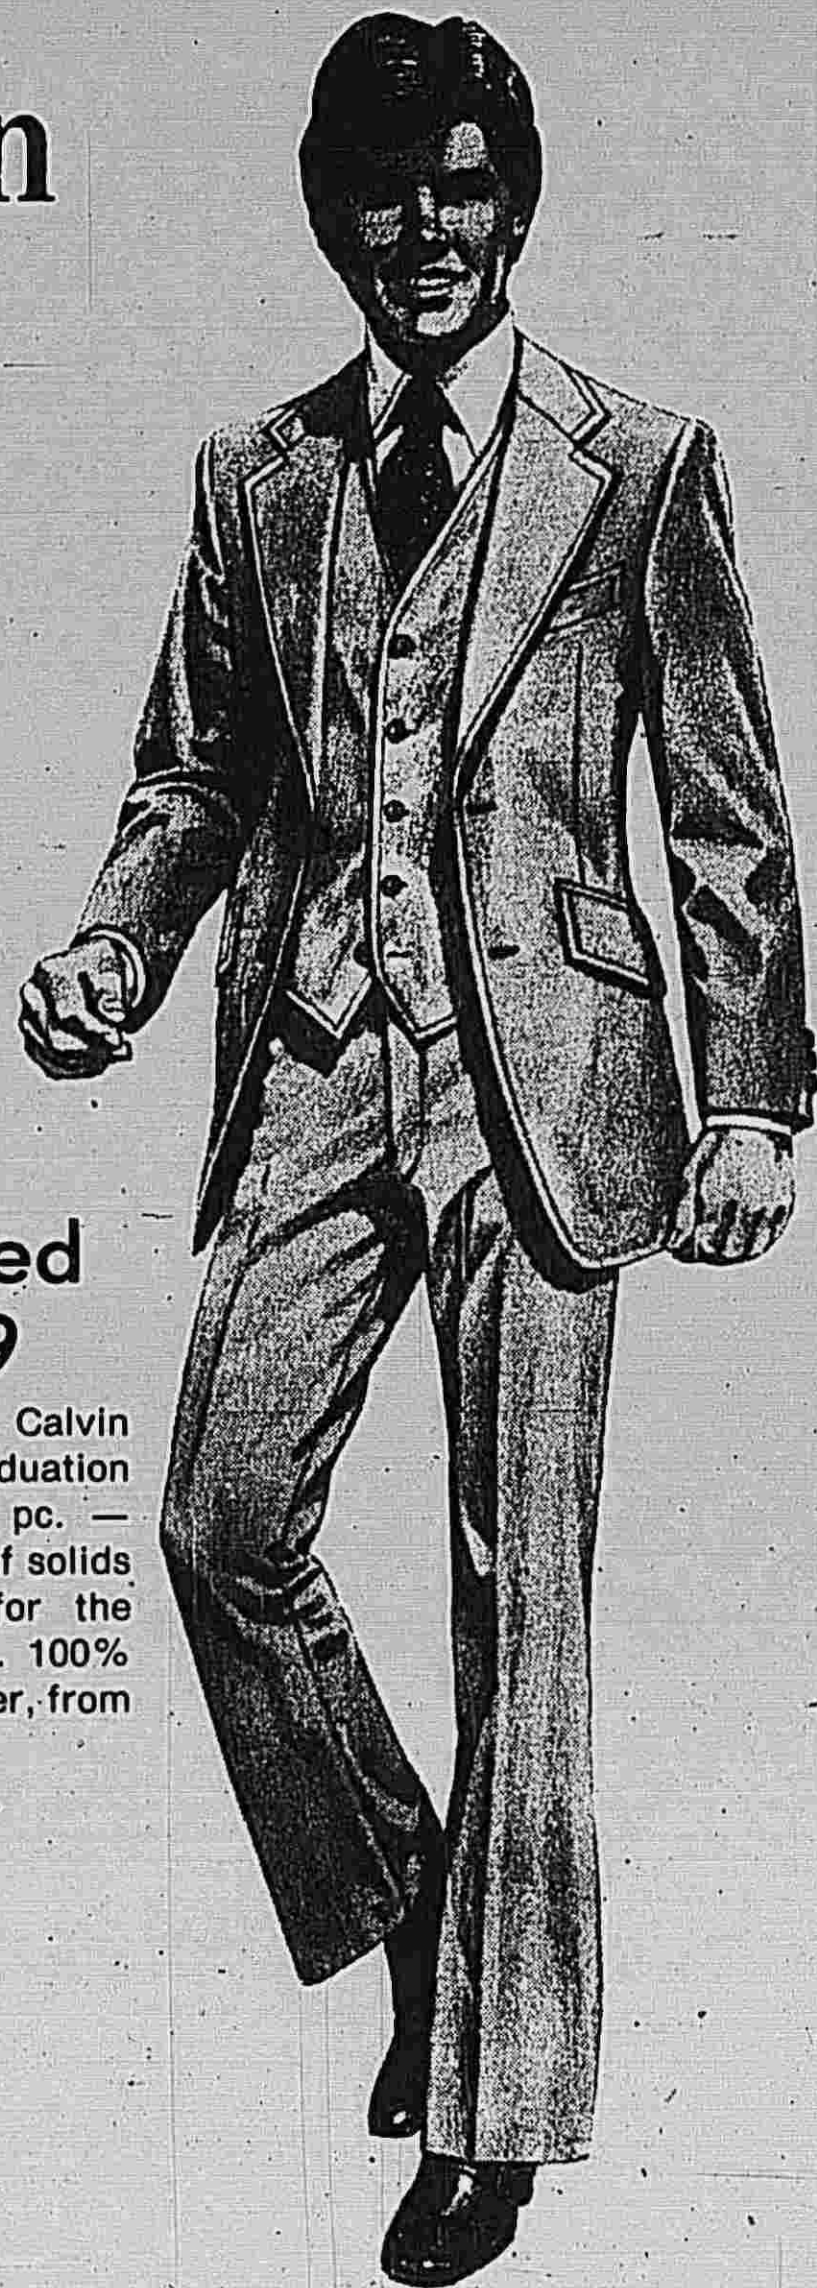

- On a lighter note, Mrs. Helen Wagner of Garys Drive said she had the flooding situation corrected in her home which had plagued her and other residents of the area for years.

She said she hired a private agency at $3,600 and it took four men one week to solve the flooding problem. Mrs. Wagner added that the men's work had been tested twice now, and she has not had any flooding problem at all.

Woman's Club hears talk on local museum

Gary Keller, program director of Lake County Museum, presented a slide tour of the Lake County Museum at the April 16 meeting of the Antioch Woman's Club.

He spoke on the wealth of information available at the museum on everything anyone always wanted to find out about Lake County, but couldn't.

The mini-tour showed how the exhibits are set up to tell a story, such as Indian cultures that flourished in this area and pioneer life through the Civil War. Special exhibits of leather making, candle making and weaving are also displayed from time to time, Keller explained.

Major township project: To resurface roads

By Beverly Cary

Antioch Township Highway Commissioner Blaine Ring reported that the township's major project for this summer is the resurfacing of Addison Ln. and Lake Dr. in Felter's Subdivision to be financed with Motor Fuel Tax income at a cost of $42,000.

Also scheduled to be resurfaced and reditched are Third Ave. and Vista in Rosing Subdivision to be paid for out of the general road fund at a cost of $26,000.

Ackerman Bridge at Indian Point is scheduled for major repair, hopefully this summer, Ring said. It is a joint project with the township, Lake County and the State. The paperwork is complete and the county will handle getting the bids.

This will be a big job because a by-pass will be needed as the bridge is the only entrance and exit to the area. There are three bridges that are maintained by the township, and the Ackerman Bridge is the only one needing repair, Ring explained.

Inflation has hit the township as hard as everyone else. For example, the general road fund this year has total bids of $97,000, compared to last year's bids of $78,350, an increase of $18,650. Ring described township road operations:

"We maintain 95 miles of road in the township. We get motor fuel credit tax for approximately 83 miles, with the remaining 12 miles paid for by us.

"The severe winter took its toll on our roads and we'll be busy patching up the damage. The roads are subject to frost boil which heaves up the pavement, creating cracks that become holes," Ring declared.

The cost of snow removal Jan. 16 - 23 was $11,500 including the hiring of outside help from Fox Trucking and De Young Trucking. Ring said the township was fortunate to receive reimbursement from the federal government in just six weeks, a check in the amount of $7,776. Antioch Township used twice the salt this year as last year, at a cost of $13.75 per ton.

Ring recounted snow removal operations.

"Our main concern during the blizzards was to keep the roads clear so people could get to work. We couldn't look at the budget and say we can't afford it — we had to keep those roads plowed. Most people were cooperative during the severe snowstorms and kept their cars out of the way of the snow plows; however, there were a few who didn't.

"We do the best we can — if the cars are in the way, we can't plow the street and have to wait for the cars to be moved. This takes time and people get upset, but what can we do about it? Without the cooperation of the car owners we can't get the roads plowed. Some of the side streets are very narrow and we just can't get through if cars remain parked on them."

Last week the township opened bids on a new two and one-half ton truck. Just to show how prices have gone up, last year's low bid on the truck was $11,590 with a trade-in. This year's low bid on a nearly identical truck is $16,951 without a trade-in. The township hopes to buy a front-end loader. This will save the trouble of renting one.

"Our present equipment came through the winter in fairly good shape. We had a few breakdowns, but that is expected when the machines are in such constant use," Ring mentioned.

"We can't raise our budget, our anticipated spending is already set. When we get our tax levy it doesn't necessarily equal the budget. We just have to do the best we can with what we've got.

"We employ four full-time men right now and they are kept busy. They do the minor maintenance on our equipment which saves us money. We may hire some temporary help for the summer if we find we need it," the veteran highway official declared.

Asked if he thinks they will get everything done that they have planned, Ring replied, "Who knows! The weather is a major factor — we're just like the farmers, we can't work when the weather is bad. We certainly hope to get a lot done, we'll try, and do our best."

Small business can strengthen federal voice

Illinois' 200,000 small businesses will be honored during Small Business Week May 13 to May 19.

Recently named Illinois Small Businessman of the Year, Stan Koziara, president of Stan the Tire Man, Inc., Mt. Vernon, and chairman of the Small Business Council of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, urged all Illinoisans to observe Gov. James Thompson's recent proclamation designating Small Business Week.

The proclamation says:

"Small Business is the very essence of our free enterprise system. In every community, small businesses affect the economy of the town; in many Illinois communities they are the only source of commercial products available.

"In these days of large corporations, it is surprising to find that some 98 percent of the businesses in Illinois and the nation are small ones, most employing less than 20 people. Almost three million people in Illinois are employed by small business, about 52 percent of the work force.

"Here in Illinois, we must aid and encourage the expansion of our 200,000 small businesses for the good of our economy and for the betterment of all our citizens."

The newspaper drive conducted by Antioch VFW Post 4551 will be started again, member Jim Egem said.

A container is now at the village garage, where the old trailer used to be, and the VFW said it will only take newspapers — not cardboard or books.

If any residents need a pick-up of their newspaper, they should call Jim Egem at 395-5512, John Jendryczka, 395-0536, Dick Burnette, 395-1296 or Steve Straukas (414) 862-2913.

PM&L scores hit with 'I Remember Mama'

By Erlene Pearce

PM&L scored another hit with their performance of "I Remember Mama," adapted for the stage by John Van Druten from the book, "Mama's Bank Account" - a chronicle of the Hanson family in San Francisco during the early 1900's as seen through the eyes of Katrin, the eldest daughter.

Pam Hunley, as Katrin, ably leads us through the happy, sad, funny, but especially loving moments of this caring family, with Anne Marie Cina superb as mama ... the magnet and core, who knows how to handle every crisis. (I didn't know Anne Marie was Norwegian but I could tell by her accent.)

And George Cina as the understanding, supportive papa was just terrific. After all, he is the one who renames the cat "Uncle Elizabeth" when it's discovered Elizabeth is a tom - realistically portrayed by Smoky-the-cat Breaun.

Gerry Schmelcher as Nels, Debbie Beno as Christine and Lori Koenig as Dagmar complete the immediate family. Looks like PM&L has some real talent coming up with these fine young people.

Really believable as the "Aunts" were: Mickey, Mandel, Rae Johansson and Yvonne Dyer. George Blanksten makes an appealing Mr. Torkleson in his efforts to court one of the aunts.

Frank Greenwood bellows and bullies the entire family - except for Marta - as the irrepressible Uncle Chris. However, we all know under that rough exterior "beats a heart of gold," even though he swears and lives with a woman (Yessie) without benefit of wedlock! I do take exception to his remarks about one Norwegian chasing Swedes through the weeds though!

"I Remember Mama" seems a difficult undertaking for a theatre as small as PM&L's, but our ambitious "players" do a super job under the able leadership of director Don Beveroth.

Throughout the evening I heard the audience commenting about the authenticity of the costuming - Thank you Tom Hausman (Mr. Hyde) - You're terrific with a needle and thread.

Set designer Bill Baum and his crew deserve a special hand for the effective sets and the quick and seemingly effortless way we're moved from scene to scene.

This heartwarming story has only one more weekend, May 4 and 5, and is playing to full houses so be sure to

'South Pacific' to premiere at Antioch High

The Antioch High School Drama department will present the Rogers & Hammerstein musical, "South Pacific" on May 10, 11, 12 and 13 in the high school auditorium.

The musical, directed by Ken Smouse, stars Lori Jo Rush and Jennifer Beese in a double cast part as Ensign Nellie Forbush. Both Lori and Jennifer are products of Studio Theater, a gifted program at the high school, and have also been involved in many high school and community theater productions.

Lori starred in "Scapino" last spring, and Jennifer was last on stage in the Fool's Players production of "Godspell." She was also Adelaide in "Guys & Dolls" at the high school last year.

Emile de Beque is played by Dino Braglia, another familiar face in the high school theater department. He appeared as Geronte in "Scapino" and was Nicely-Nicely in "Guys & Dolls."

Other lead and feature roles include Ken Niese as Luther Billis. This is Ken's first lead in a high school production, although he has had many supporting roles.

Lt. Joseph Cable is played by Keith Boehm, an all-around actor, singer, and stagehand. Keith has also worked on set and lighting for this production. He also appeared in "Godspell" last spring.

Bloody Mary is played by Andrea Kleban, and her daughter, Liat, is played by Patti Gross; by no means a newcomer to the high school stage, having appeared in "West Side Story," "Guys & Dolls," and studio theater productions.

Musical direction is in the able hands of Tracy Teltz Kiederlein, and the pit combo is being organized by Ralph Brooke, vocal instructor. Stage managing and set design is under the direction of senior Debbie Boehm. Debbie is a talented art student, having won Best of Show for her set design of "West Side Story" at the 1977 Art Show, coordinators said.

Curtain time for all four shows will be 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available in advance from members of the cast, and from Mr. Smouse. Tickets are payable at the door, and constitute a seat reservation only. Admission is $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for students.

Woodchippers to hold last spring meeting May 9

The May 9 regular meeting of the Chain-O-Lakes Woodchippers will be the last meeting until September, club officials announced.

The Wednesday evening session will be held at the Antioch Township Public Library from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Club members and visiting guests are encouraged to bring their various carving tools because the evening will be devoted to learning the methods of sharpening tools.

The Woodchippers said they felt their second annual woodcarving show held at the Lakehurst Shopping Center April 28 and 29 was a huge success. Forty-one high quality carvers from Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan and the Chicago suburban area exhibited their art projects.

Many of the professional and amateur carvers demonstrated their skills to the hundreds of spectators and visitors.

The three main business purchase awards of the show were won by:

Don Schultz of Buffalo Grove with his oak leaves and acorns relief easel, purchased by the Gallery.

Ray Wipperman from St. Louis, Mo. for his relief carving of a mandolin, purchased by the Bank of Lakehurst.

Ted Gutmann from Mount Prospect with his monk-carvings, purchased by the Lakehurst Merchants Association.

Antioch's AARP invites Waukegan chapter guests

Eleven members of Chapter 150 of Waukegan's American Association of Retired Persons were guests at Antioch's AARP meeting last week.

Waukegan AARP president Carl Anderson told the group that at one time they had 1,200 members and had to break up the chapter into groups of about 700, and more chapters were started.

His wife Geraldine Anderson told the group that she once spoke at a dinner of a Kenosha chapter of the AARP and said it turned out to be a hog calling contest — and she won first prize!

Antioch AARP members asked her to give a demonstration of hog calling, and she did, and was very good at it, members said.

Ann Wenclawski and Louise Robel of Antioch's AARP performed a skit for the guests about grandmothers, entitled, "The Place in the Sun."

Antioch magician Tom Hubbard gave a show for guests. Antioch AARP publicity chairwoman Frances Winiecki said she was delighted to participate in one of the tricks, and won a $1 bill.

Hubbard also performed a trick with rings and asked Gladys Locke to separate them. When Gladys could not, Hubbard handed her a book with 462 pages on magic and told her it would give her the answer.

Hubbard told the group he will be performing at the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry's Arts and Crafts show this July.

Antioch AARP's next business meeting will be held May 8 to honor Senior Citizens as part of Senior Citizens month. A program will be arranged at the meeting.

Also, a health forum will be held May 10 and 11 at the Hilton Hotel on Michigan Ave. in Chicago. The $5 fee will include the cost of lunch.

A special bus will be used for transportation and President Esther Aiani should be called at 395-5354 for reservations on the bus.

Antioch's AARP invites new members to always join. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at noon in Fr. Frawley Hall, in St. Peter's Catholic Church at 557 Lake St.

Center to celebrate Senior Citizen's month

Celebrate Senior Citizen's Month! Senior Citizens can treat themselves to a visit to the Antioch Fun, Food and Friendship Center, located in the Antioch Scout House, at 741 Main St., open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. until 2:30 p.m.

The Center, operated by Catholic Charities, provides a meal at noon, along with a variety of programs and activities, coordinator Marian Rohde said.

The following activities are scheduled for Friday through May 9:

Friday - 1 p.m. Pinochle tournament; Center members are looking for others interested in Bridge and Bunco.

Monday - 10:30 a.m. Spring Exercises begin; 12:45 p.m. Philip Schaub, from Antioch Savings and Loan Association presents an insurance seminar. Guests are welcome to bring in their insurance policies for inspection.

Wednesday, May 9 - 1 p.m. Nutrition Bingo: each player is asked to bring a can of food, since the canned goods will be used for prizes.

The Fun, Food and Friendship Centers in Lake County got started four years ago when concerned senior citizens and representatives of some social service agencies saw the need for programs and activities which would meet the needs of retired people.

They said they felt retirement should be a good time of life, but that there were few places where seniors could meet new people and share ideas.

The Lake County Council for Seniors was formed to speak for seniors, and has been very successful in making people, as well as local, state and federal government bodies aware of senior needs, Mrs. Rohde explained.

Women of Moose

Two new members, Mary O'Donnell and Eileen Lantry, were welcomed

last Thursday evening by the members of the Women of the Moose.

Along with the enrollment ceremony, balloting was held for two new candidates for a future enrollment.

The audit for the third quarter was given and Senior Regent Judith Kelly reminded all of the ceremony for the Academy of Friendship degree which would be held at Mooseheart on May 6.

Four co-workers from the Antioch chapter entitled to receive the degree are: Roberta Knackstedt, Marilyn Vynalek, Sherrie Lovell and Tina Zickus. A special meeting in the chapter honoring these four candidates would be held May 17 at the second May meeting.

At the next meeting, May 3, nominations for the 1979-80 slate of officers will be read. An enrollment of new members will also take place at this meeting.

After the May 3 meeting a bake walk sponsored by the child care committee will be held.

Loveless makes living helping unusual 'birds'

By John F. Brindley

BARBERS POINT, Hawaii — To people of the Hawaiian Islands, the "Bird-of-Paradise" is a beautiful flowering plant characterized by its bright, colorful blossom, reminiscent of a bird perched for flight.

But to a select group of people on Oahu, an island for years romantically linked to paradise, there's a more exotic kind of bird seen among the Polynesian potpourri of tropical flora and winged wildlife — the Navy helicopter.

Jeffery C. Loveless of Antioch, knows all about such unusual birds.

As a petty officer second class with Light Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron 37 based at the naval air station here, Loveless makes his living helping one such "bird" in a complicated game of hide and seek against Soviet subs and ships traversing through the waters of the Western Pacific.

Loveless' role in this demanding drama as a Navy aviation electrician's mate is to maintain a wide range of electrical and navigational equipment in the helicopter.

"The electrician keeps the helicopter flying so that it can do its mission," explained the 25-year-old son of Thomas and Laura Loveless of Rte. 3, Antioch.

"I like electronics. Right now, I'm the night check supervisor, supervising three other aviation electricians who work the night shift at the squadron. I'm also involved in training and tool control."

For its primary job of antisubmarine warfare and antimissile defense, Loveless' squadron utilizes the Navy's newest and most sophisticated helicopter — the Light Airborne Multi-Purpose System (LAMPS).

With a crew of three, consisting of a pilot, co-pilot and sensor operator, the helo can easily hover like a deadly hummingbird over its target, dipping sonar and in war, delivering a payload which can vary from guns and honing torpedos to air-to-surface missiles.

According to the squadron commander, Cmdr. Patrick Mahoney of Norwalk, Conn., the aircraft's ability to deploy aboard surface combat ships has greatly enhanced the fleet's ability to detect, track, classify and localize an enemy.

"With today's technology, we're faced with what we call a triple threat — a submarine attack simultaneously with an air and surface ship attack," he noted.

"As part of our readiness posture in peacetime, we must know where enemy submarines are, what they're doing, where they're going, and where they came from. A helicopter like ours aboard ship is an effective way to do this."

Loveless, who attended Antioch Community High School, said he enjoys some of the things he's been able to do here working with a mechanical bird in paradise.

"It's an ultimate challenge whenever you have a problem in an aircraft," he said. "If you can fix something in half the time it takes someone else, that really makes it worthwhile to me. I do enjoy the work."

As for being stationed in Hawaii, not too far from Honolulu and such famous recreational areas as Waikiki Beach and Diamond Head, he admits to similar feelings.

"Being from the Midwest, I'm used to four seasons," he said.

"Here the weather is perfect and the beaches are great. You can snow ski and surf all at the same time. It's beautiful, some of the neatest sights in the world. I've got a thousand pictures."

AVIATION ELECTRICIAN'S MATE — Jeffery C. Loveless, a Navy petty officer second class from Antioch, is currently serving with Light Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron 37, located at Barber's Point Naval Air Station in Oahu, Hawaii. The 25-year-old Navy aviation electrician's mate is the son of Thomas and Laura Loveless of Rte. 3, Antioch.

Tracksters remain undefeated in conference

Antioch's track and field team remained undefeated in conference this weekend, as they beat Round Lake 89-57 and romped over Wauconda 133-12.

The Sequoits also beat top-rated foe Lake Zurich Monday night and have two tough meets scheduled this week, Coach Norm Hahn said. Tonight they face Stevenson at 4 p.m. at home and Friday Antioch hosts its sophomore invitational at 4 p.m., traditionally a big meet.

The frosh-soph squad defeated Round Lake 109-30 and Wauconda 81½ to 63½.

Best personal performances for the week included:

Greg Bies: 880, 2:03.7; 440, 54.1; mile, 4:46.3.

Rich Becker: 440, 54.0; 100, 10.7; 220, 24.0.

Andy Dugenske: 440, 53.3; triple jump, 39.3.

Tom Parpon: pole vault, 12'6".

Greg Stevens: discus, 120'.

Peter Jung: 220, 23.7; 100, 10.8.

Bob Otten: 2 mile, 10:21.5.

Mike Promshafer: triple jump, 39'10½"

Mike Mattson: 880, 2:10.4

Roger Plechaty: High jump, 6'0"

Rob Standard: 100, 10.9

1 point costs netters a victory

Antioch High tennis coach Ron Halpern said last week's varsity match was tied with two team points for Antioch and two team points for Stevenson. The second doubles match would determine the victory of the meet.

The stage was set with victories by Tom Surrock and Tom Mehlhorn and losses by Roger Korjenek and first doubles Stu Short and Dan Rezin.

Gary Manual and Jim Nikolai lost the first set at second doubles 3-6, but won the second 7-5 to bring the match to a third set.

Nikolai and Manual led five games to three with add-in on their serve, match point. This happened twice as Stevenson fought back to win 7-5 and the meet 3-2.

This meet came after Antioch beat Cary Grove 5-0 to bring the season record to 7-2.

The sophomores lost their first match of the year to Cary Grove 3-2 then crunched Stevenson 5-0 to bring their record to 8-1.

The Sequoit netters now have to beat Stevenson in the conference meet to win the championship, Halpern said.

SOPHOMORE ANDY DUGENSKE, center, grabs the baton from Rich Becker on the third leg of the relay race at the North Chicago

Relay track meet last Saturday. The relay team finished fourth at the meet.

Hermit crabs, goose are Pet Parade winners

Winners of Grass Lake PTO's Pet Parade held last Sunday included hermit crabs, a goose, cats and a bike-riding dog.

Best of Show was won by Mike Mattson, a fourth grader, with his pet goose named Sam.

Christine Schultz, fifth grader, won the First Place trophy for Miscellaneous animals for her hermit crabs — Curly, Larry and Moe.

First place winner in the cat category was Karrol Knutson, fourth grader, for her cat Buffy. Second place cat winner was Suzette Samson, sixth grader, for her pet Tiger.

Jerry Young, who is in kindergarten, and his dog Grizzly, a poodle, won first place in the dog contest. Joy Whitehead, fifth grader, and her bike-riding dog Duchess received second prize in the dog category.

PTO officers extended a special thanks to Principal Richard Hogan, who was the emcee for the event, for allowing the school to hold the parade in the gym.

Judges were Nancy and Bryan Lewkowicz of L and R Pet Shop and did a "marvelous job," PTO officers said.

"We sincerely appreciate the time and effort they put forth in making our event a day to remember," pet parade chairman Ardeen Harris said.

"All the boys and girls who entered their pets should be congratulated for the excellent way they conducted themselves and their pets," she added.

Driver's ed to be offered this summer to residents

Antioch Community High School will again offer Driver Education to all students living in the Antioch Community High School district. The course is open to any Antioch High School district resident between the ages of 15 and one-half and 21.

In order to enroll for the summer program, the school is requiring the prospective student reach his or her 16th birthday by Dec. 19.

Applications for the summer program can be obtained at the high school and should be completed and returned to Ward Lear before June 8. The only cost involved is for materials and the cost of a permit.

The program will consist of three integrated phases - 33 hours of classroom instruction, 12 hours of simulation laboratory, and three to four hours of behind-the-wheel street instruction.

Antioch High School is fortunate in having simulation in the driver education program of instruction, Lear said. Through the use of simulators, instruction can be improved and from the standpoint of economics, group instruction makes possible a substantial reduction in dual-control car time.

Costs, therefore, are greatly reduced, he said. By using simulation in the high school driver education, the students develop better driving habits, greater skills, better attitudes, plus many emergency situations can be taught with complete safety, Lear added.

With the use of simulation, an instructor can teach 12 students at a time instead of just one student as in a street instruction situation. Twelve hours of work in a simulator is equivalent to about three hours of instruction on the street.

Lear said simulation is more than a simple replacement of the car, "it is a laboratory tool that enables the student to practice driving techniques in a variety of driving situations."

He continued, "What is seen on the screen represents the view through the windshield of a car. As they drive, students are confronted with situations requiring responses such as signal, brake, shift, steer, decelerate - in fact, all the responses that might be required in a car on an actual street."

"Driving action can be monitored by the system to provide the instructor with a progress report of the individual student and class as a group. Perhaps the most important feature - simulation can expose the student to potentially hazardous traffic situations without risk to himself or others," he explained.

The simulation car is 48 inches long, 29 inches wide, 28 inches high, and weighs 250 pounds. The driving compartment contains the actual controls and instruments of a popular American automobile.

The results of operation facilitates the transfer of learning from the simulator to the real car. The final product is a more efficient and safe user of our highway system, Lear said.

Cars for the on-street instruction will again be furnished by two of the automobile dealers in Antioch. Those furnishing cars for the program are: Lyons-Ryan Ford and John Teresi Chevrolet-Oldsmobile.

"The driver education program probably would not be possible without the help of these fine local firms," Lear said.

Blood pressure screening

A blood pressure screening clinic will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, May 9, at the Antioch Township Public Library on Main Street.

At the clinic, sponsored by the Lake County Health Department, nurses will screen individuals for high blood pressure and refer those with elevated blood pressure to a physician for medical evaluation.

Instruction for diets, medications and other aspects of controlling high blood pressure are offered to persons referred by their physician.

All adults are welcome and no appointment is necessary.

"When an individual's high blood pressure is controlled, the risk of stroke, heart attack and kidney failure is greatly reduced," said Dr. Steven R. Potsic, executive director of the Lake County Health Department.

For further information, call the Hypertension Program, Lake County Health Department, 689-6715.

GET OUT YOUR broken vacuum cleaner, old boxes or torn-up rugs ... in other words, all that junk that has been taking up space in your basement, attic or garage all winter! May 7 through May 11 has been scheduled as Clean-Up Week in Antioch and the village crew will go around and haul away all the unwanted items you want to throw out. Thank heaven for those wonderful men!

I SURE HOPE ALL of Antioch's grade school kids remembered to say something nice about their moms and then enter it in the "Mother of the Year" contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry. The deadline for entries was last Monday, April 30, and now it is up to the judges to determine the best essay and who will win all those prizes for "Mom of the Year." We'll all know by next week's Antioch News!

WHAT ABOUT THIS comment I heard recently from one of my friends:

"Everyone knows Charlie's Angels, but does anyone know about 'Bud's Broads?'"

IT'S A GIRL! And it is the first grandchild for Larry and Barb Lass of Antioch. Their son Larry and daughter-in-law Nancy had a baby girl, Theresa Marie, last Friday April 27 in Pomona Park, Fla. The baby weighed eight pounds, 15 and one-half ounces at birth.

Larry is a 1974 graduate of Antioch High School and Nancy is from Silver Lake, Wis. The maternal grandparents, Paul and Wanda Dankert, were formerly of Silver Lake but now reside near their daughter in Crescent City, Fla. Congratulations to the new mom and dad ... and to the new grandparents!

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO Sue Koppa, owner of the Gilded Cage, who will celebrate on May 4. Happy birthday also to someone special who will blow out the candles on the same day, Jerry Nasenbeny.

On Saturday, May 5, Rich Higgins will celebrate his birthday, probably out on the golf course, where he thinks he belongs! Have you seen the Flying Nun recently, Rich?

HAPPY BELATED BIRTHDAY to Christa Badame, who blew out two candles last Monday, April 30. Christa celebrated cake and ice cream with her mom and dad, Joe and Carol Badame of "Weasels" pizza.

FOR ANY OF YOU who might have missed it, last week a terrific movie was shown at the Antioch Theatre — "Coming Home" — starring Jon Voight (best actor of the year) and Jane Fonda (best actress of the year). And believe me, that love scene was something else!

CONGRATULATIONS TO Bertha Laudando of Burlington, Wis., a friend of the Badames, who won a microwave oven in the Homemakers '79 Cooking Show sponsored by Lakeland Newspapers. Bertha told me she really could use the microwave oven, and it's the best thing she has ever won in her life! (Incidentally, the oven was donated by Petti Brothers TV and Appliances and Lakeland Newspapers).

93rd YEAR No. 43

FIFTEEN CENTS

More to come? So far, more than 100 inches of snow

As of last Friday, 103.7 inches of snow has been dumped on the village, breaking the 100-inch mark of the white stuff for the 1978-79 snow season.

And Tom Robinson, official weather observer in Antioch for the National Weather Service, said "We're probably not through with it (snow) yet. I think we're still going to get some more."

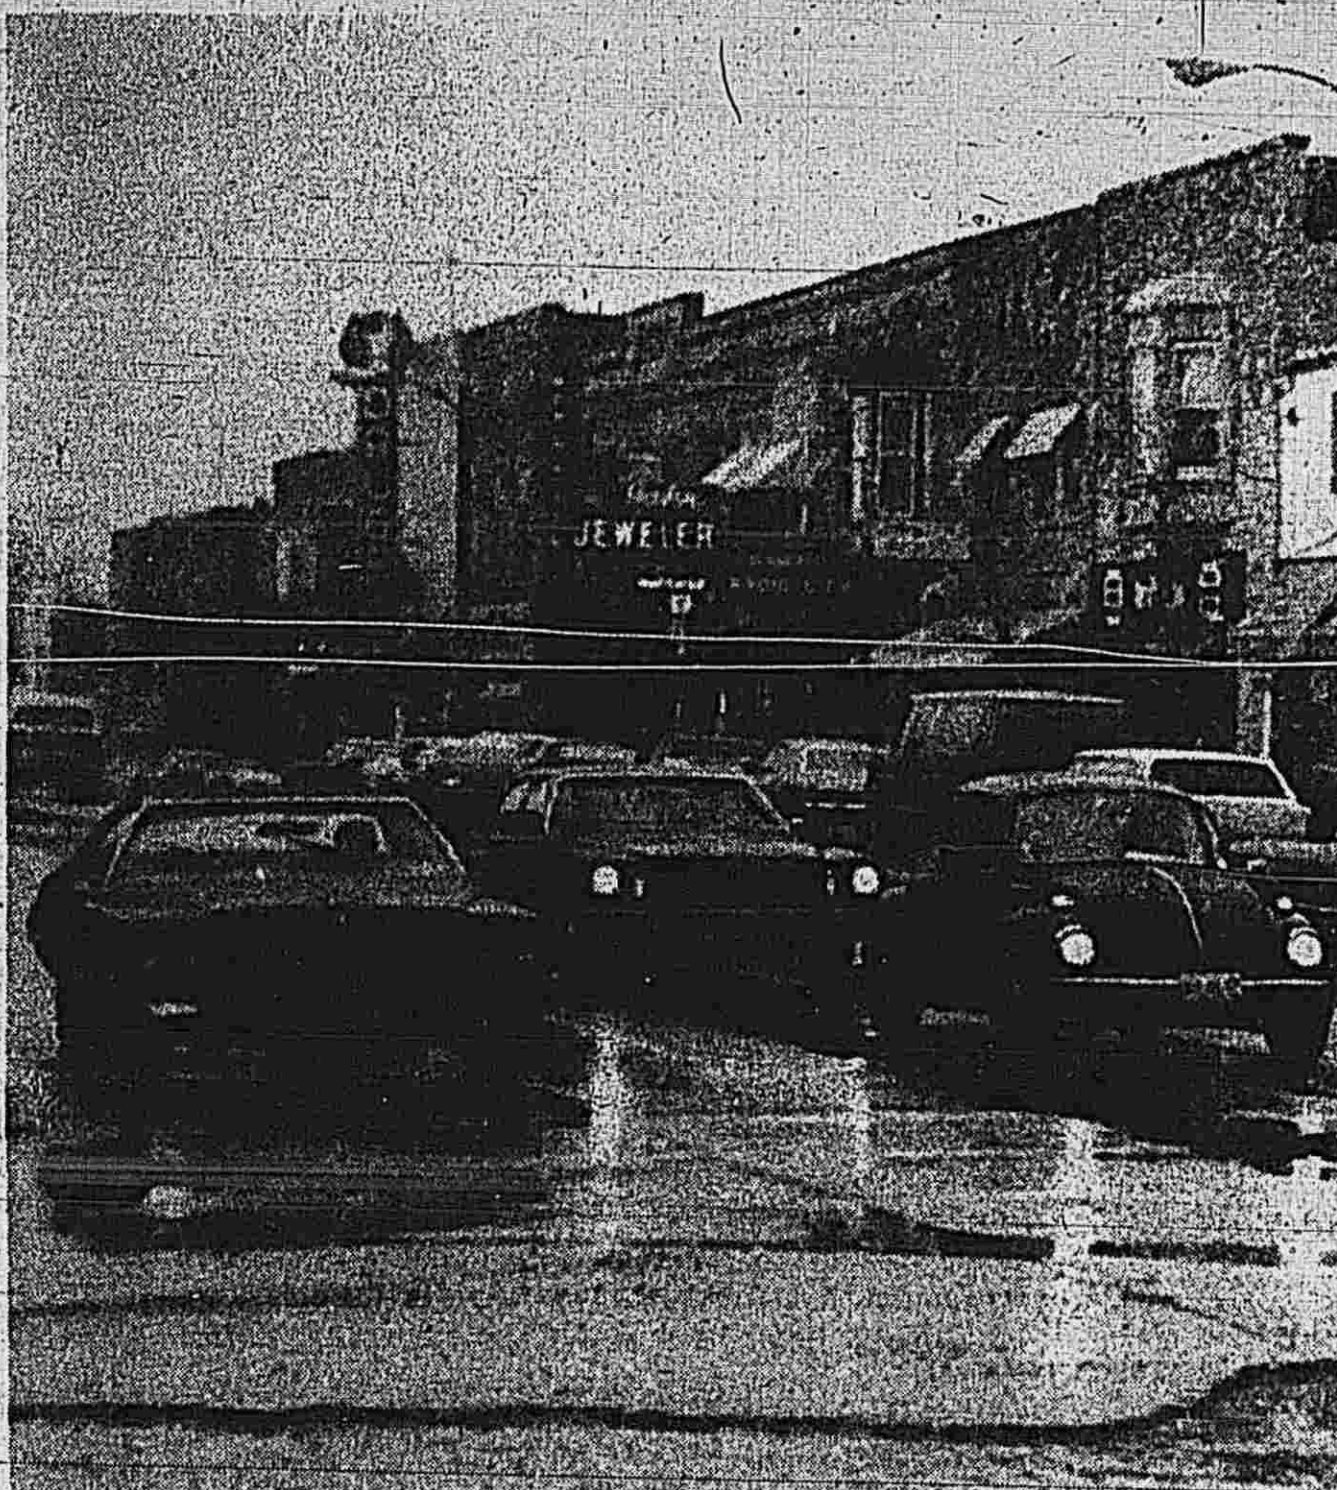

Robinson has been pretty accurate in his predictions for the season so far, and some of his co-workers said they have "a knife at his throat" if he says we'll get any more snow.

Last Friday, .88 inches of precipitation were dropped on the village, and Robinson said it counted as snow "because it came down as snow. Whether it melted once it hit ground doesn't count."

This year's snow accumulation breaks all records for the village. Last year, Antioch had the biggest accumulation prior to that, with 82 inches of flakes.

Robinson added that last year, the village had 118 consecutive days of one inch or more of snow on the ground, and Antioch broke that record this year with 120 days of snow on the ground.

Also, he said the month of April has been about three degrees colder than the average temperature for the month, with a mean of about 45 degrees.

April showers?

WE MAY HAVE EXPECTED a bit of rain in this traditional month of showers, but not many bargained for the sleet and snow that was dumped on Antioch Friday, causing everybody to pull their winter coats back out of the closet. (News photo by Sue Nasenbeny)

Liquor licenses ok'd by board

Fifteen village liquor licenses for 1979-80 were awarded, the results of the trustee election were authorized and the start of a five-village radio communications system was set up Monday night at the village board meeting.

No additions or revocations were made to the list of establishments qualifying for liquor licenses, Trustee Arnold Weber, chairman of the License Committee said.

They include the following:

Also, Buy Low Liquor's, Class B $400. Thompson's Tavern & Grill, Class A, Early Closing $500. Antioch Foremost Liquor, Class B, $400. Antioch Moose Lodge, Class C, Club License, $100.

ALSO AT THE meeting, the results of the April 17 election for village trustee were authorized by Mayor Michael Haley

'Overwhelming response' for 'Mom of the Year' contest

An "overwhelming response" has been received in the first-ever "Mother of the Year" essay contest sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Dixie Sparks, executive secretary of the Chamber, said entries have poured in by the hundreds from children in Antioch Grade schools, each explaining in about 25 words why they think their mom is the greatest.

"The Chamber is really grateful to the schools for the tremendous response, interest and enthusiasm in the contest. Without the help of the teachers, we could not have had such a wonderful response," she added.

Monday was the deadline for all essays, with entries being judged this week. Winners will be notified this weekend with pictures of the winning "Mom of the Year" and her child appearing in next week's Antioch News, along with the winning essay.

Students who live in Antioch from first through eighth grade were eligible for the contest.

The winning mom will be showered with a huge assortment of more than 50 prizes, including free dinners, shows, gifts and gift certificates donated by Antioch merchants and businesses.

The contest is the brainchild of Don Marski of Ben Franklin, who is head of the Retail Committee coordinating it. Other members of coordinating committee include co-chairwomen LoAl Clark and Susan Siwula of Park Avenue Gallery.

Mrs. Sparks said the purpose of the contest was to "help the children think about how they felt about their moms and what they mean to them."

IT'S ALWAYS NICE to be a winner, as these ladies know. They were picked last week in the Las Vegas Night raffle sponsored by the Jaycees and Viking Football. From left are Ron Vogt, an officer for Viking football, Sandy Atcherton of Lake Villa who won a Subaru "Little Brat" go-cart; Wayne Solonen, chairman of the event for the Jaycees; Rita Bonaldi of Round Lake who won the trip for two to Las Vegas (but decided to take the alternate prize of $300); and Karen Padjen of Lake Villa, who won six dinners for two in various Antioch area fine restaurants.

Ksioszk, Kenyon elected to St. Peter's board

An incumbent and a newcomer were elected to St. Peter's School Board April 21 and 22 after Saturday and Sunday Masses.

High school board okays graduation date

The Antioch High School board approved the last day for students for the 1978-79 school year to be Thursday, June 7. Commencement is set for Sunday, June 10th, at 3:30 p.m. in the North Gym.

School board members had an opportunity to inspect a cutaway model of the proposed concession stand planned for the athletic field. The model was constructed by student James Heischberg from drawings by James Nikolai. Both are students in Roland Schleusener's architectural drawing class.

Supt. Warren Polley reported that instructors Sue Gerash and Ann Kakacek are participating in a workshop at Evanston High School. They are making presentations on teaching reading in the content areas.

The board also accepted the low bid of $6,150 from Elliot-Williams company to install a new walk-in freezer.

They also approved Guarantee Trust Life Insurance Company to be the carrier for the 1979-80 student insurance. The school time and football rates remain the same as the current year. The 24-hour coverage premium was increased to $29, they said.

Fran Ksioszk was re-elected and gathered the most votes with 116, and first-timer Pat Kenyon was elected with 99 votes.

Incumbent Steve Rzyso's term had expired and since he served two previous terms on the school board, could not run for re-election, school officials said.

Vote totals of the remaining school board candidates were as follows: Bob Gagnon, 88; Bruce Pagni, 56; Ted Burbridge, 39.

A total of 220 St. Peter's parishioners voted in the election, including absentee ballots.

Ksioszk and Kenyon will serve three-year terms.

Smith said SBA personnel are stationed at the Fox Lake office, located at: Fire Station No. 2 (Social Hall), 114 Washington St. Hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

All about town ...

By LINDA WALKER

You know that New Year's resolution I made regarding consistency with my column? As you can see I broke it. There's no sense making this year's resolution any different than the past.

SANDY NORWOOD, owner of Hair Designs Unlimited, has been busy again.

If you know Sandy like I do, you know she just can't sit still. So now she has taken on a new line of facial products by Aloe-Mist. And Sandy had the nerve to tell me it could even help my peaches and cream complexion.

Anyway, Sandy says you will definitely be able to see the results after the first application.

I LOVE THE professional look the Park Avenue Mall's walk-way has achieved.

The awning and expertly-styled sign allows shoppers on Main Street to know what is located back in the Mall.

Besides, it's an excellent way to dodge our recent London weather.

POLLY AT THE Tower Room (in the Antioch Bowling Lanes complex) has come up with an excellent reason for booking your wedding reception in their banquet room. Along with quality food at moderate prices, you will receive, compliments of The Tower Room, a wedding cake.

Better hurry. This offer is only being offered for parties booked by June 30th.

LOTS OF EXCITING changes at Harbor Ridge Country Club.

Jim Urban, head of the Pro Shop, said the locker rooms have been completely remodeled and the greens are next on the list as soon as the weather clears.

The main thing Jim wants everyone to know is that the country club is open to the public and everyone is invited out to play.

IF WE EVER GET some sunshine, the greenhouses around town have some beautiful flowers and vegetables for planting.

I'm sure one of them will have the plant you've been looking for.

The whole idea behind CHECK-N-CHARGE is to give you a line of credit to use with your State Bank of Antioch checking account. It's as simple as that - checking with a built-in balance that is ready and waiting when you need it ... just write a check in excess of your checkbook balance for the amount you need, and you have written your own private loan ... no need to reapply and no trip in to see us each time you need money. Repayment is in sensible monthly installments, and as you pay off your loan balance, your available credit renews itself. A house divided

Editor:

The recent election of the Antioch Grade School Board, District 34, has left some sore spots, as many elections do. Anyone running for a seat on the School Board would have greater understanding and insight into the problems and grievances of that Board, if they could take the time and effort to acquaint themselves with the operations of that Board.

School Board meetings are open to the public. A regular attendance of these meetings, with an open mind, would provide much toward the understanding and insight mentioned above.

In the nine years I served on the Antioch Grade School Board, I know of only two people who took advantage of the privilege to attend Board meetings - regularly - with the thought of running for the Board. Both of these people were later elected, and served the community in good faith. It takes a long time for anyone to become a "good" School Board Member - just as it takes a long time to train for any responsible position.

The present Antioch Grade School Board has been severely criticized, for several different things. It appears to me that the people making these accusations are doing so from a lack of knowledge. They speak of reforming the Board, of just what the Board should and should not do with district monies, of what they would do if elected. On a Board of seven members, one voice cannot make many changes.

A house divided against itself cannot stand - and a divided School Board can never accomplish the mountain of work that assails and threatens to overwhelm it. How much better it would be, for all concerned, if people would support the Board, rather than try to tear it down.

Very truly yours,
Mildred A. LaPlant

McClory sets criminal justice conference

Congressman Robert McClory (R-13th, Illinois), the ranking Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, in cooperation with the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission, is sponsoring a day-long Criminal Justice Conference this Friday at the Gurnee Holiday Inn.

The Conference, scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. will be highlighted by prominent federal and local law enforcement officials.

Participants in the morning session will hear from James Adams, the associate director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Peter Bensinger, the administrator of the Drug Enforcement Agency. Adams will be introduced by Dennis Ryan, the Lake County State's Attorney.

Also addressing the morning session will be Congressman McClory; Andrew Principe, the Chairman of the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission; and Daniel Weil, the Chairman and Acting Executive Director of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission.

The afternoon session will be addressed by G.R. (Bob) Dickerson, the director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; and Henry S. Dogin, the administrator of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. Introducing Dickerson will be Chief Sam Johns of the Crystal Lake Police Department.

The speakers will discuss the federal government's criminal justice programs and possible directions for future activity. A particular focus of the conference will be on ways in which federal and local officials can work cooperatively in their joint efforts to reduce the country's growing crime problem.

Specific topics for discussion will include the problems of arson, drug abuse, crime prevention and programs directed against the trafficking in stolen and black market firearms.

Congressman McClory welcomed the holding of the conference in the 13th Congressional District, saying, "This conference will give top federal and local law enforcement problems we face in fighting crime. Local police and criminal justice officials, as well as all interested private citizens should take advantage of this unique opportunity."

Further information on the conference is available by calling Barbara Drabek-Doyle of the Lake-McHenry Law Enforcement Planning Commission, 602 County Building, Waukegan, 689-6471.

There is no charge for the conference. However, lunch tickets cost $6 and reservations should be made in advance.

Committee to evaluate our nuclear safety

William Redmond, speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives, took action to establish an ongoing committee to maintain an evaluation of nuclear safety in the state of Illinois.

The committee was appointed through the membership of the Illinois House Energy and Natural Resources committee. The new subcommittee shall be entitled the Joint House-Senate committee on Nuclear Safety.

Five House members were appointed to the committee, among which were Ronald Griesheimer (R-Waukegan).

"The question of nuclear safety is certainly important to all people in the State of Illinois. Its significance is even greater to those of us living in Lake County."

"With the continuing operation of the nuclear generating plant in Zion, we all must be assured that every safety factor and regulation be complied with in great detail."

"The Zion Nuclear Generating Plant produces one-third of all the electricity in Northern Illinois. Its operation must be monitored constantly by Commonwealth Edison and the State and Federal Nuclear Regulatory Agencies, he reported.

"Our new committee appointments are for the purpose of establishing a legislative overview to the continuing safe operation of Illinois nuclear generating sites. Our committee, if necessary, can speedily hear whatever legislation may be necessary to enforce higher standards for nuclear safety."

"We will work closely with the Illinois Nuclear Regulatory Agency and the Environmental Protection Agency to provide the most stringent law that may be reasonably necessary to protect all our citizens," Griesheimer added.

Other members of the committee are Rep. Webber Borchers of Decatur, Rep. Wyvetter Young of East St. Louis, Rep. William Harris of Marion, and Rep. Daniel Pierce of Highland Park.

Transfer of special ed students discussed by board

Whether Grade School District 34 students will be transferred from Antioch Lower Grade School to Channel Lake School next fall was scheduled to be discussed at last night's board of education meeting.

Several parents of the district's special education students had presented a petition to the school board at its last meeting requesting that the board not transfer the students, citing that it would negatively affect their children and that they were opposed to busing the students out of town.

Supt. Donald Skidmore said in his notes to the board that he had researched the issue through reading all the psychologicals of the students to discover more information about them and how the move might affect them.

Also, he met with principals of district schools to discuss the transfer, including alternatives.

"On the basis of what I read, a case might be made for one student who could be negatively affected by the movement.

However, in checking with Harley Ware, (principal of Antioch Grade School) I discovered the one child would not be involved in the move if one class remained at Antioch Grade School," Skidmore reported.

Also, he said, after discussing the matter with school principals, "the best plan, if students were to be moved, would be to move the LOP 2 (Learning Opportunities) class from Antioch and the LD 1 (Learning Disabilities) class from Oakland to Channel Lake; and to move the LOP 1 classes to Oakland."

He added that because classes are not completely staffed for next year he could not give the exact composition of the classes yet.

However, he said most of next year's LD 1 class will come from the current LOP 2 class and most of the LOP 2 class will consist of students now in LOP 1 and in the other LOP 2 class.

Another option Skidmore brought out was keeping the classes where they are and running a partial library program from a classroom next year.

Skidmore recommended that the LD 1 and one LOP 2 class be moved to Channel Lake School to facilitate the opening of the library at Antioch Grade School.

One LOP 1 class would be kept at Antioch and the other class would be moved to Oakland, he added.

The second option he recommended was to keep the students where they are and run a temporary library facility in a classroom.

The school board was scheduled to discuss the various options and try to come up with a solution last night.

ALSO AT LAST night's meeting, the board was scheduled to decide whether to:

- Approve a summer band program for fourth through eighth graders.

Skidmore recommended that the board approve the band program since the district's insurance company would cover the program including out-of-district students if it was handled as it has been in the past.

The board had tabled the issue last week pending clarification of the insurance issue.

- Reimburse all school district employees who must use their car as part of their employment at the rate of 20 cents per mile for the 1979-80 school year.

Skidmore recommended the rate after researching figures released by the American Automobile Association. According to that agency, the cost of operating an average intermediate size car rose seven percent this year over 1978.

- Purchase Elk Grove School District 59's two libraries, including more than 11,000 books, plus card catalogs and complete shelving at a cost of $20,000. Skidmore had recommended that the board approve the purchase.

- Approve spending up to $9,000 for a security system for the new W.C. Petty School.

Skidmore explained that District 34 "has had good luck with security systems." Before the Upper Grade School had installed a security system, much vandalism had occurred at the school.

But since the installation of the security system, he said "the percentage has been about zip" for break-ins and vandalism.

Also at the meeting, Skidmore was scheduled to report on the budget for the new W.C. Petty School.

In his notes he said a contingency fund of $77,948 was placed in the budget for unexpected or additional costs. Thus far, all of the change orders authorized amounted to $27,000.

Skidmore said whatever remains of the fund upon completion of the school will be refunded proportionately to the district.

Also, he reported that enrollment totals for kindergarten pre-registration for this fall were: Channel Lake, 7, Antioch Grade, 36 and Oakland, 69.

Police may cooperate in radio communications system

and Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

Re-elected trustees William Seemann, Arnold Weber and Edgar Simonsen will be officially sworn in at the May 7 village board meeting.

Also, at the meeting:

- Village Attorney Andrew Lynch was instructed to review the application for a grant in an inter-agency agreement with four other area villages, Fox Lake, Lake Villa, Grayslake and Lindenhurst, for a radio network communications system with the respective police departments.

Police Chief Chuck Miller explained that the system is "very good" and would include equipping each police department with five personal portable radios.

Each policeman on duty would then have access to the department dispatcher at all times and could call for assistance without having to go back to the squad car, Miller said.

- Mike Tucker, of Lakewood Drive in Oakwood Knolls subdivision, alerted the board to a "potential health hazard" in a vacant lot adjacent to him which was not drained properly, he said.

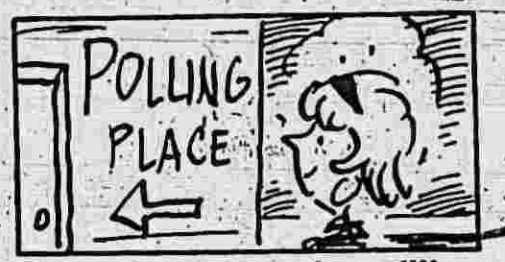

The lot, owned by Mrs. Bernard Freeman of Park Ridge, should be filled and maintained properly, Tucker said, to ensure the safety and health of his 18-month-old daughter.

Tucker said he had contacted Mrs. Freeman in the past but has had no results.

Mayor Michael Haley said he would contact the public works department to find out what can be done to solve the problem.

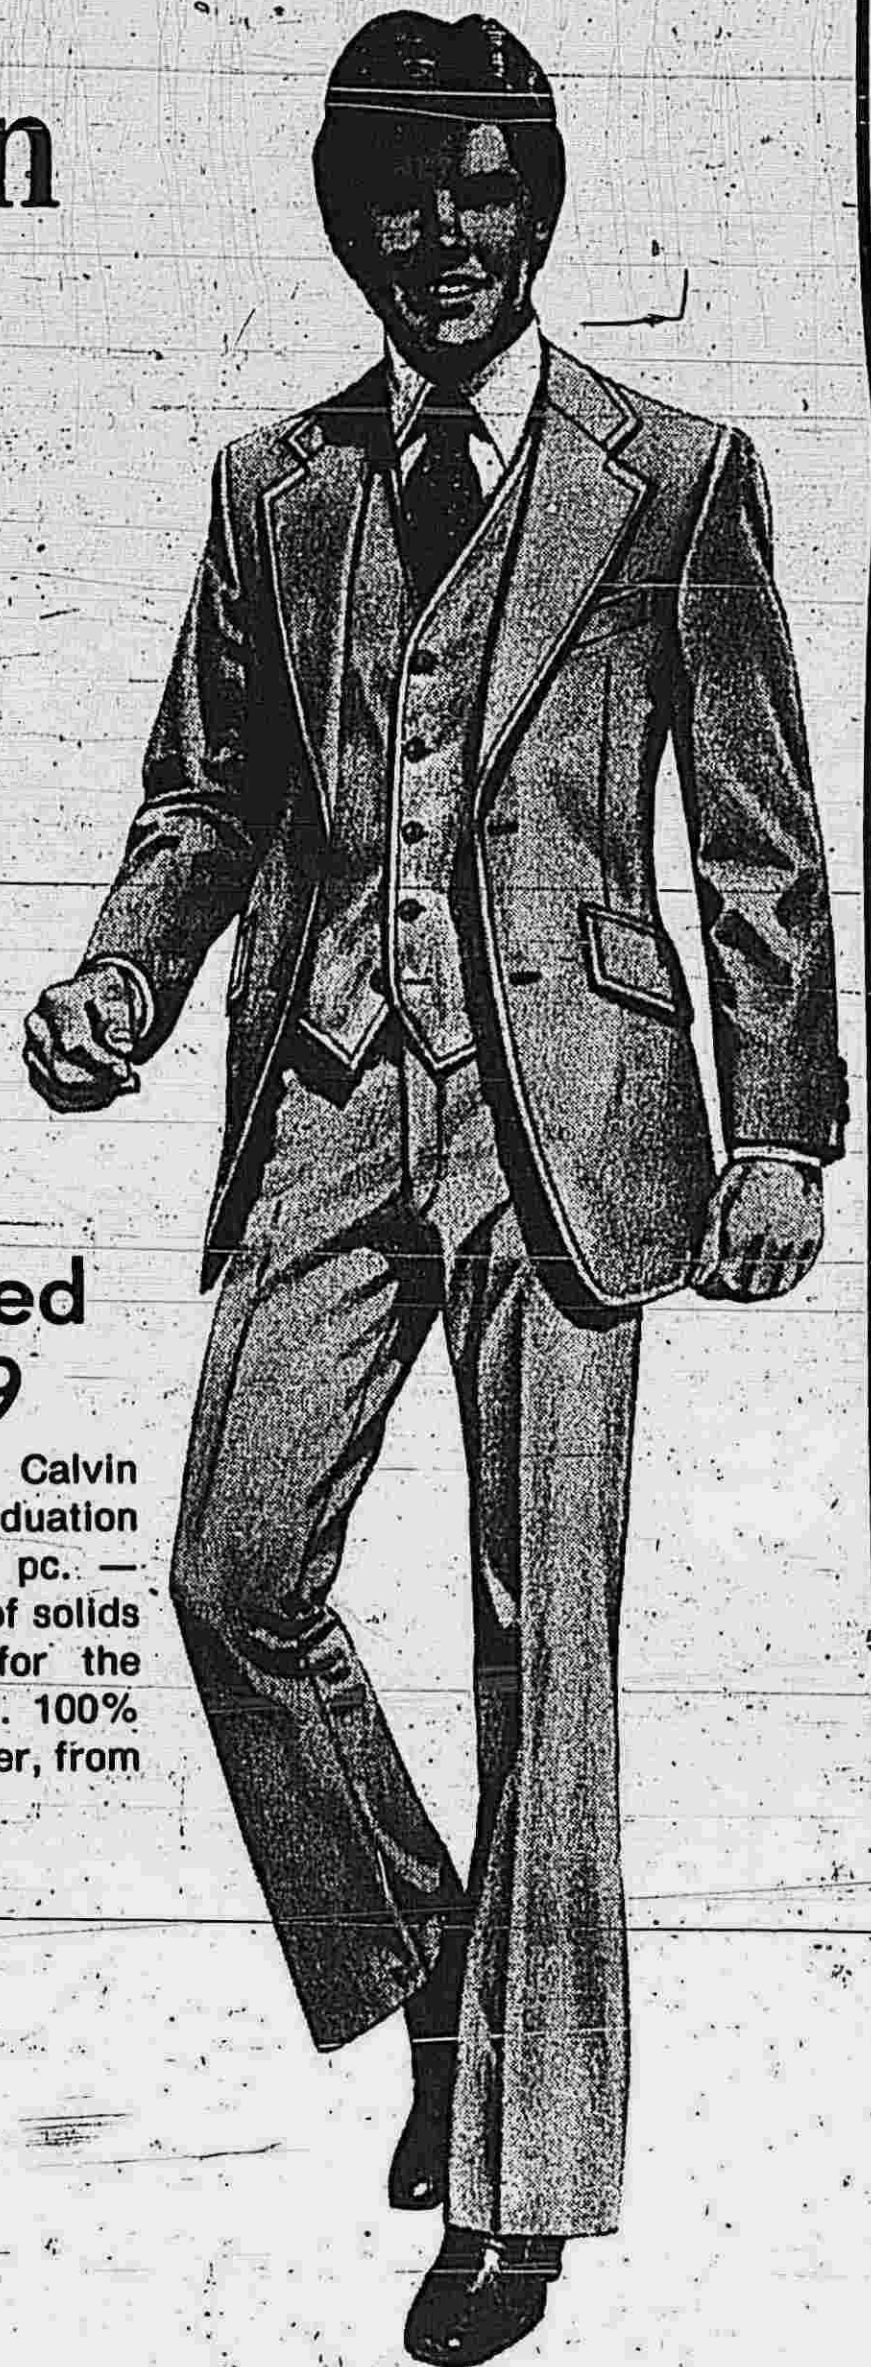

- On a lighter note, Mrs. Helen Wagner of Garys Drive said she had the flooding situation corrected in her home which had plagued her and other residents of the area for years.

She said she hired a private agency at $3,600 and it took four men one week to solve the flooding problem. Mrs. Wagner added that the men's work had been tested twice now, and she has not had any flooding problem at all.

Major township project: To resurface roads

By Beverly Cary

Antioch Township Highway Commissioner Blaine Ring reported that the township's major project for this summer is the resurfacing of Addison Ln. and Lake Dr. in Felter's Subdivision to be financed with Motor Fuel Tax income at a cost of $42,000.

Also scheduled to be resurfaced and reditched are Third Ave. and Vista in Rosing Subdivision to be paid for out of the general road fund at a cost of $26,000.

Ackerman Bridge at Indian Point is scheduled for major repair, hopefully this summer, Ring said. It is a joint project with the township, Lake County and the State. The paperwork is complete and the county will handle getting the bids.

This will be a big job because a by-pass will be needed as the bridge is the only entrance and exit to the area. There are three bridges that are maintained by the township, and the Ackerman Bridge is the only one needing repair, Ring explained.

Inflation has hit the township as hard as everyone else. For example, the general road fund this year has total bids of $97,000, compared to last year's bids of $78,350, an increase of $18,650. Ring described township road operations:

"We maintain 95 miles of road in the township. We get motor fuel credit tax for approximately 83 miles, with the remaining 12 miles paid for by us.

"The severe winter took its toll on our roads and we'll be busy patching up the damage. The roads are subject to frost boil which heaves up the pavement, creating cracks that become holes," Ring declared.

The cost of snow removal Jan. 16 - 23 was $11,500 including the hiring of outside help from Fox Trucking and De Young Trucking. Ring said the township was fortunate to receive reimbursement from the federal government in just six weeks, a check in the amount of $7,776. Antioch Township used twice the salt this year as last year, at a cost of $13.75 per ton.

Ring recounted snow removal operations.

"Our main concern during the blizzards was to keep the roads clear so people could get to work. We couldn't look at the budget and say we can't afford it — we had to keep those roads plowed. Most people were cooperative during the severe snowstorms and kept their cars out of the way of the snow plows; however, there were a few who didn't.

"We do the best we can — if the cars are in the way, we can't plow the street and have to wait for the cars to be moved. This takes time and people get upset, but what can we do about it? Without the cooperation of the car owners we can't get the roads plowed. Some of the side streets are very narrow and we just can't get through if cars remain parked on them."

Last week the township opened bids on a new two and one-half ton truck. Just to show how prices have gone up, last year's low bid on the truck was $11,590 with a trade-in. This year's low bid on a nearly identical truck is $16,951 without a trade-in. The township hopes to buy a front-end loader. This will save the trouble of renting one.

"Our present equipment came through the winter in fairly good shape. We had a few breakdowns, but that is expected when the machines are in such constant use," Ring mentioned.

"We can't raise our budget, our anticipated spending is already set. When we get our tax levy it doesn't necessarily equal the budget. We just have to do the best we can with what we've got.

"We employ four full-time men right now and they are kept busy. They do the minor maintenance on our equipment which saves us money. We may hire some temporary help for the summer if we find we need it," the veteran highway official declared.

Asked if he thinks they will get everything done that they have planned, Ring replied, "Who knows! The weather is a major factor — we're just like the farmers, we can't work when the weather is bad. We certainly hope to get a lot done, we'll try, and do our best."

Small business can strengthen federal voice

Illinois' 200,000 small businesses will be honored during Small Business Week May 13 to May 19.

Recently named Illinois Small Businessman of the Year, Stan Koziara, president of Stan the Tire Man, Inc., Mt. Vernon, and chairman of the Small Business Council of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, urged all Illinoisans to observe Gov. James Thompson's recent proclamation designating Small Business Week.

The proclamation says:

"Small Business is the very essence of our free enterprise system. In every community, small businesses affect the economy of the town; in many Illinois communities they are the only source of commercial products available.

"In these days of large corporations, it is surprising to find that some 98 percent of the businesses in Illinois and the nation are small ones, most employing less than 20 people. Almost three million people in Illinois are employed by small business, about 52 percent of the work force.

"Here in Illinois, we must aid and encourage the expansion of our 200,000 small businesses for the good of our economy and for the betterment of all our citizens."

The newspaper drive conducted by Antioch VFW Post 4551 will be started again, member Jim Egem said.

A container is now at the village garage, where the old trailer used to be, and the VFW said it will only take newspapers — not cardboard or books.

If any residents need a pick-up of their newspaper, they should call Jim Egem at 395-5512, John Jendryczka, 395-0536, Dick Burnette, 395-1296 or Steve Straukas (414) 862-2913.

Homemaker '79: A success with food and fashion

A huge crowd of homemakers filled the gym at Antioch Upper Grade School last Thursday night in anticipation of the Homemaker '79 Cooking Show sponsored by Lakeland Newspapers.

The first 1,000 visitors were treated with a special grab-bag of assorted "freebies" and sample items when they walked in the door.

Once in the gym, a row of booths sponsored by area merchants were on display for browsing. The cooking show, run by nationally known home economist Joan Clement, provided homemakers with loads of tips on cooking everyday to gourmet foods, which Joan prepared on stage.

A spring style show entertained the crowd with the latest fashions from the Globe, Barnstables, Four Squires, Stanley's, Gibbs and Jenssen's Carousel and BJ's Men's Fashions.

All throughout the evening, door prizes from area merchants were awarded, with the two grand prizes given away at the end of the night, a dryer and a microwave oven, donated by Western Auto, Petti Brothers Appliances and Lakeland Newspapers.

PM&L scores hit with 'I Remember Mama'

By Erlene Pearce

PM&L scored another hit with their performance of "I Remember Mama," adapted for the stage by John Van Druten from the book, "Mama's Bank Account" - a chronicle of the Hanson family in San Francisco during the early 1900's as seen through the eyes of Katrin, the eldest daughter.

Pam Hunley, as Katrin, ably leads us through the happy, sad, funny, but especially loving moments of this caring family, with Anne Marie Cina superb as mama ... the magnet and core, who knows how to handle every crisis. (I didn't know Anne Marie was Norwegian but I could tell by her accent.)

And George Cina as the understanding, supportive papa was just terrific. After all, he is the one who renames the cat "Uncle Elizabeth" when it's discovered Elizabeth is a tom - realistically portrayed by Smoky-the-cat Breen.

Gerry Schmelcher as Nels, Debbie Beno as Christine and Lori Koenig as Dagmar complete the immediate family. Looks like PM&L has some real talent coming up with these fine young people.

Really believable as the "Aunts" were: Mickey, Mandel, Rae Johansson and Yvonne Dyer. George Blanksten makes an appealing Mr. Torkleson in his efforts to court one of the aunts.

Frank Greenwood bellows and bullies the entire family - except for Marta - as the irrepressible Uncle Chris. However, we all know under that rough exterior "beats a heart of gold," even though he swears and lives with a woman (Yessie) without benefit of wedlock! I do take exception to his remarks about one Norwegian chasing Swedes through the weeds though!

"I Remember Mama" seems a difficult undertaking for a theatre as small as PM&L's, but our ambitious "players" do a super job under the able leadership of director Don Beveroth.

Throughout the evening I heard the audience commenting about the authenticity of the costuming - Thank you Tom Hausman (Mr. Hyde) - You're terrific with a needle and thread.

Set designer Bill Baum and his crew deserve a special hand for the effective sets and the quick and seemingly effortless way we're moved from scene to scene.

This heartwarming story has only one more weekend, May 4 and 5, and is playing to full houses so be sure to

'South Pacific' to premiere at Antioch High

The Antioch High School Drama department will present the Rogers & Hammerstein musical, "South Pacific" on May 10, 11, 12 and 13 in the high school auditorium.

The musical, directed by Ken Smouse, stars Lori Jo Rush and Jennifer Beese in a double cast part as Ensign Nellie Forbush. Both Lori and Jennifer are products of Studio Theater, a gifted program at the high school, and have also been involved in many high school and community theater productions.

Lori starred in "Scapino" last spring, and Jennifer was last on stage in the Fool's Players production of "Godspell." She was also Adelaide in "Guys & Dolls" at the high school last year.

Emile de Beque is played by Dino Braglia, another familiar face in the high school theater department. He appeared as Geronte in "Scapino" and was Nicely-Nicely in "Guys & Dolls."

Other lead and feature roles include Ken Nieze as Luther Billis. This is Ken's first lead in a high school production, although he has had many supporting roles.

Lt. Joseph Cable is played by Keith Boehm, an all-around actor, singer, and stagehand. Keith has also worked on set and lighting for this production. He also appeared in "Godspell" last spring.

Bloody Mary is played by Andrea Kleban, and her daughter, Liat, is played by Patti Gross; by no means a newcomer to the high school stage, having appeared in "West Side Story," "Guys & Dolls," and studio theater productions.

Musical direction is in the able hands of Tracy Teltz Kiederlein, and the pit combo is being organized by Ralph Brooke, vocal instructor. Stage managing and set design is under the direction of senior Debbie Boehm. Debbie is a talented art student, having won Best of Show for her set design of "West Side Story" at the 1977 Art Show, coordinators said.

Curtain time for all four shows will be 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available in advance from members of the cast, and from Mr. Smouse. Tickets are payable at the door, and constitute a seat reservation only. Admission is $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for students.

Woodchippers to hold last spring meeting May 9

The May 9 regular meeting of the Chain-O-Lakes Woodchippers will be the last meeting until September, club officials announced.

The Wednesday evening session will be held at the Antioch Township Public Library from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Club members and visiting guests are encouraged to bring their various carving tools because the evening will be devoted to learning the methods of sharpening tools.

The Woodchippers said they felt their second annual woodcarving show held at the Lakehurst Shopping Center April 28 and 29 was a huge success. Forty-one high quality carvers from Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan and the Chicago suburban area exhibited their art projects.

Many of the professional and amateur carvers demonstrated their skills to the hundreds of spectators and visitors.

visitors.

The three main business purchase awards of the show were won by:

Ray Wiperman from St. Louis, Mo. for his relief carving of a mandolin, purchased by the Bank of Lakehurst.

Ted Gutmann from Mount Prospect with his monk-carvings, purchased by the Lakehurst Merchants Association.

Antioch's AARP invites Waukegan chapter guests

Eleven members of Chapter 150 of Waukegan's American Association of Retired Persons were guests at Antioch's AARP meeting last week.

Waukegan AARP president Carl Anderson told the group that at one time they had 1,200 members and had to break up the chapter into groups of about 700, and more chapters were started.

His wife Geraldine Anderson told the group that she once spoke at a dinner of a Kenosha chapter of the AARP and said it turned out to be a hog calling contest — and she won first prize!

Antioch AARP members asked her to give a demonstration of hog calling, and she did, and was very good at it, members said.

Ann Wenclawski and Louise Robel of Antioch's AARP performed a skit for the guests about grandmothers, entitled, "The Place in the Sun."

Antioch magician Tom Hubbard gave a show for guests. Antioch AARP publicity chairwoman Frances Winlecki said she was delighted to participate in one of the tricks, and won a $1 bill.

Hubbard also performed a trick with rings and asked Gladys Locke to separate them. When Gladys could not, Hubbard handed her a book with 462 pages on magic and told her it would give her the answer.

Hubbard told the group he will be performing at the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry's Arts and Crafts show this July.

Antioch AARP's next business meeting will be held May 8 to honor Senior Citizens as part of Senior Citizens month. A program will be arranged at the meeting.

Also, a health forum will be held May 10 and 11 at the Hilton Hotel on Michigan Ave. in Chicago. The $5 fee will include the cost of lunch.

A special bus will be used for transportation and President Esther Alani should be called at 395-5354 for reservations on the bus.

Antioch's AARP invites new members to always join. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at noon in Fr. Frawley Hall, in St. Peter's Catholic Church at 557 Lake St.

Center to celebrate Senior Citizen's month

Celebrate Senior Citizen's Month! Senior Citizens can treat themselves to a visit to the Antioch Fun, Food and Friendship Center, located in the Antioch Scout House, at 741 Main St., open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. until 2:30 p.m.

The Center, operated by Catholic Charities, provides a meal at noon, along with a variety of programs and activities, coordinator Marian Rohde said.

The following activities are scheduled for Friday through May 9:

Friday - 1 p.m. Pinochle tournament; Center members are looking for others interested in Bridge and Bunco.

Monday - 10:30 a.m. Spring Exercises begin; 12:45 p.m. Philip Schaub, from Antioch Savings and Loan Association presents an insurance seminar: Guests are welcome to bring in their insurance policies for inspection.

Wednesday, May 9 - 1 p.m. Nutrition Bingo: each player is asked to bring a can of food, since the canned goods will be used for prizes.

The Fun, Food and Friendship Centers in Lake County got started four years ago when concerned senior citizens and representatives of some social service agencies saw the need for programs and activities which would meet the needs of retired people.

They said they felt retirement should be a good time of life, but that there were few places where seniors could meet new people and share ideas.

The Lake County Council for Seniors was formed to speak for seniors, and has been very successful in making people, as well as local, state and federal government bodies aware of senior needs, Mrs. Rohde explained.

Women of Moose

Two new members, Mary O'Donnell and Eileen Loverty, were welcomed

last Thursday evening by the members of the Women of the Moose.

Along with the enrollment ceremony, balloting was held for two new candidates for a future enrollment.

The audit for the third quarter was given and Senior Regent Judith Kelly reminded all of the ceremony for the Academy of Friendship degree which would be held at Mooseheart on May 6.

Four co-workers from the Antioch chapter entitled to receive the degree are: Roberta Knackstedt, Marilyn Vynalek, Sherrie Lovell and Tina Zickus. A special meeting in the chapter honoring these four candidates would be held May 17 at the second May meeting.

At the next meeting, May 3, nominations for the 1979-80 slate of officers will be read. An enrollment of new members will also take place at this meeting.

After the May 3 meeting a bake walk sponsored by the child care committee will be held.

FINANCIAL NEWS

by
Phil
Schaub

Most of us at one time or another take out a loan. We know that we pay interest for the use of the money, but how is the interest figured?

There are three basic ways of charging interest: Add-on, Simple and Discount. This week, we'll discuss Add-on, which is more commonly used for installment loans.

Add-on interest doesn't accumulate during the term of the loan. At the time you borrow the money, the interest is added on to the principal. The sum is the total of your payments. This is divided by the number of payments to tell you how much to pay each month.

For example, let's say that you borrow $5,000 to buy a car. You pay 6.5 percent Add-on interest. You will make 36 monthly payments starting 30 days after you get the money, and 6.5 percent of $5,000 is $325.

You will pay $325 in interest for each year of the note. It's a 36 month (three-year) note so your interest will be $975 (three times $325). Your monthly payments will be $165.97 ($5,975 divided by 36). The lender will round the payments up except for the last one where you'll pay just what's left.

Most lenders round to the penny, a few round up to the next dollar. The regular payments in our example will be $165.98. The last one will be $165.64. These payments assume an exact three-year term.

What if the first payment isn't due exactly 30 days after you get the loan? You can go up to 45 days between getting the money and the first payment. If you go over 30 days, the lender can and often will add extra interest for each extra day. The exact interest is spread out over all the payments.

In our example, if you went 45 days to the first payment, the regular payments would be $166.80. If your lender charges a fee, he adds it to the principal and figures interest on it like an additional amount borrowed.

If your lender calls for service charges, he adds them directly to the interest. Many people add credit life and disability insurance coverages so that if they can't repay the loan, the insurance company will. The premium for these is treated like an additional loan. These insurance coverages will usually add no more than $10 to the monthly payments.

Loveless makes living helping unusual 'birds'

By John F. Brindley

BARBERS POINT, Hawaii — To people of the Hawaiian Islands, the "Bird-of-Paradise" is a beautiful flowering plant characterized by its bright, colorful blossom, reminiscent of a bird perched for flight.

But to a select group of people on Oahu, an island for years romantically linked to paradise, there's a more exotic kind of bird seen among the Polynesian potpourri of tropical flora and winged wildlife — the Navy helicopter.

Jeffery C. Loveless of Antioch, knows all about such unusual birds.

As a petty officer second class with Light Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron 37 based at the naval air station here, Loveless makes his living helping one such "bird" in a complicated game of hide and seek against Soviet subs and ships traversing through the waters of the Western Pacific.

Loveless' role in this demanding drama as a Navy aviation electrician's mate is to maintain a wide range of electrical and navigational equipment in the helicopter.

"The electrician keeps the helicopter flying so that it can do its mission," explained the 25-year-old son of Thomas and Laura Loveless of Rte. 3, Antioch.

"I like electronics. Right now, I'm the night check supervisor, supervising three other aviation electricians who work the night shift at the squadron. I'm also involved in training and tool control."

For its primary job of antisubmarine warfare and antimissile defense, Loveless' squadron utilizes the Navy's newest and most sophisticated helicopter — the Light Airborne Multi-Purpose System (LAMPS).

With a crew of three, consisting of a pilot, co-pilot and sensor operator, the helo can easily hover like a deadly hummingbird over its target, dipping sonar and in war, delivering a payload which can vary from guns and honing torpedos to air-to-surface missiles.

According to the squadron commander, Cmdr. Patrick Mahoney of Norwalk, Conn., the aircraft's ability to deploy aboard surface combat ships has greatly enhanced the fleet's ability to detect, track, classify and localize an enemy.

"With today's technology, we're faced with what we call a triple threat — a submarine attack simultaneously with an air and surface ship attack," he noted.

"As part of our readiness posture in peacetime, we must know where enemy submarines are, what they're doing, where they're going, and where they came from. A helicopter like ours aboard ship is an effective way to do this."

Loveless, who attended Antioch Community High School, said he enjoys some of the things he's been able to do here working with a mechanical bird in paradise.

"It's an ultimate challenge whenever you have a problem in an aircraft," he said. "If you can fix something in half the time it takes someone else, that really makes it worthwhile to me. I do enjoy the work."

As for being stationed in Hawaii, not too far from Honolulu and such famous recreational areas as Waikiki Beach and Diamond Head, he admits to similar feelings.

"Being from the Midwest, I'm used to four seasons," he said.

"Here the weather is perfect and the beaches are great. You can snow ski and surf all at the same time. It's beautiful, some of the neatest sights in the world. I've got a thousand pictures."

AVIATION ELECTRICIAN'S MATE — Jeffery C. Loveless, a Navy petty officer second class from Antioch, is currently serving with Light Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron 37, located at Barber's Point Naval Air Station in Oahu, Hawaii. The 25-year-old Navy aviation electrician's mate is the son of Thomas and Laura Loveless of Rte. 3, Antioch.

Tracksters remain undefeated in conference

Antioch's track and field team remained undefeated in conference this weekend, as they beat Round Lake 89-57 and romped over Wauconda 133-12.

The Sequoits also beat top-rated foe Lake Zurich Monday night and have two tough meets scheduled this week, Coach Norm Hahn said. Tonight they face Stevenson at 4 p.m. at home and Friday Antioch hosts its sophomore invitational at 4 p.m., traditionally a big meet.

The frosh-soph squad defeated Round Lake 109-30 and Wauconda 81½ to 63½.

Best personal performances for the week included:

Greg Bies: 880, 2:03.7; 440, 54.1; mile, 4:46.3.

Rich Becker: 440, 54.0; 100, 10.7; 220, 24.0.

Andy Dugenske: 440, 53.3; triple jump, 39.3.

Tom Parpon: pole vault, 12'6".

Greg Stevens: discus, 120'.

Peter Jung: 220, 23.7; 100, 10.8.

Bob Otten: 2 mile, 10:21.5.

Mike Promshafer: triple jump, 39'10½"

Mike Mattson: 880, 2:10.4

Roger Plechaty: High jump, 6'0"

Rob Standard: 100, 10.9

1 point costs netters a victory

Antioch High tennis coach Ron Halpern said last week's varsity match was tied with two team points for Antioch and two team points for Stevenson. The second doubles match would determine the victory of the meet.

The stage was set with victories by Tom Surrock and Tom Mehlhorn and losses by Roger Korjenek and first doubles Stu Short and Dan Rezin.

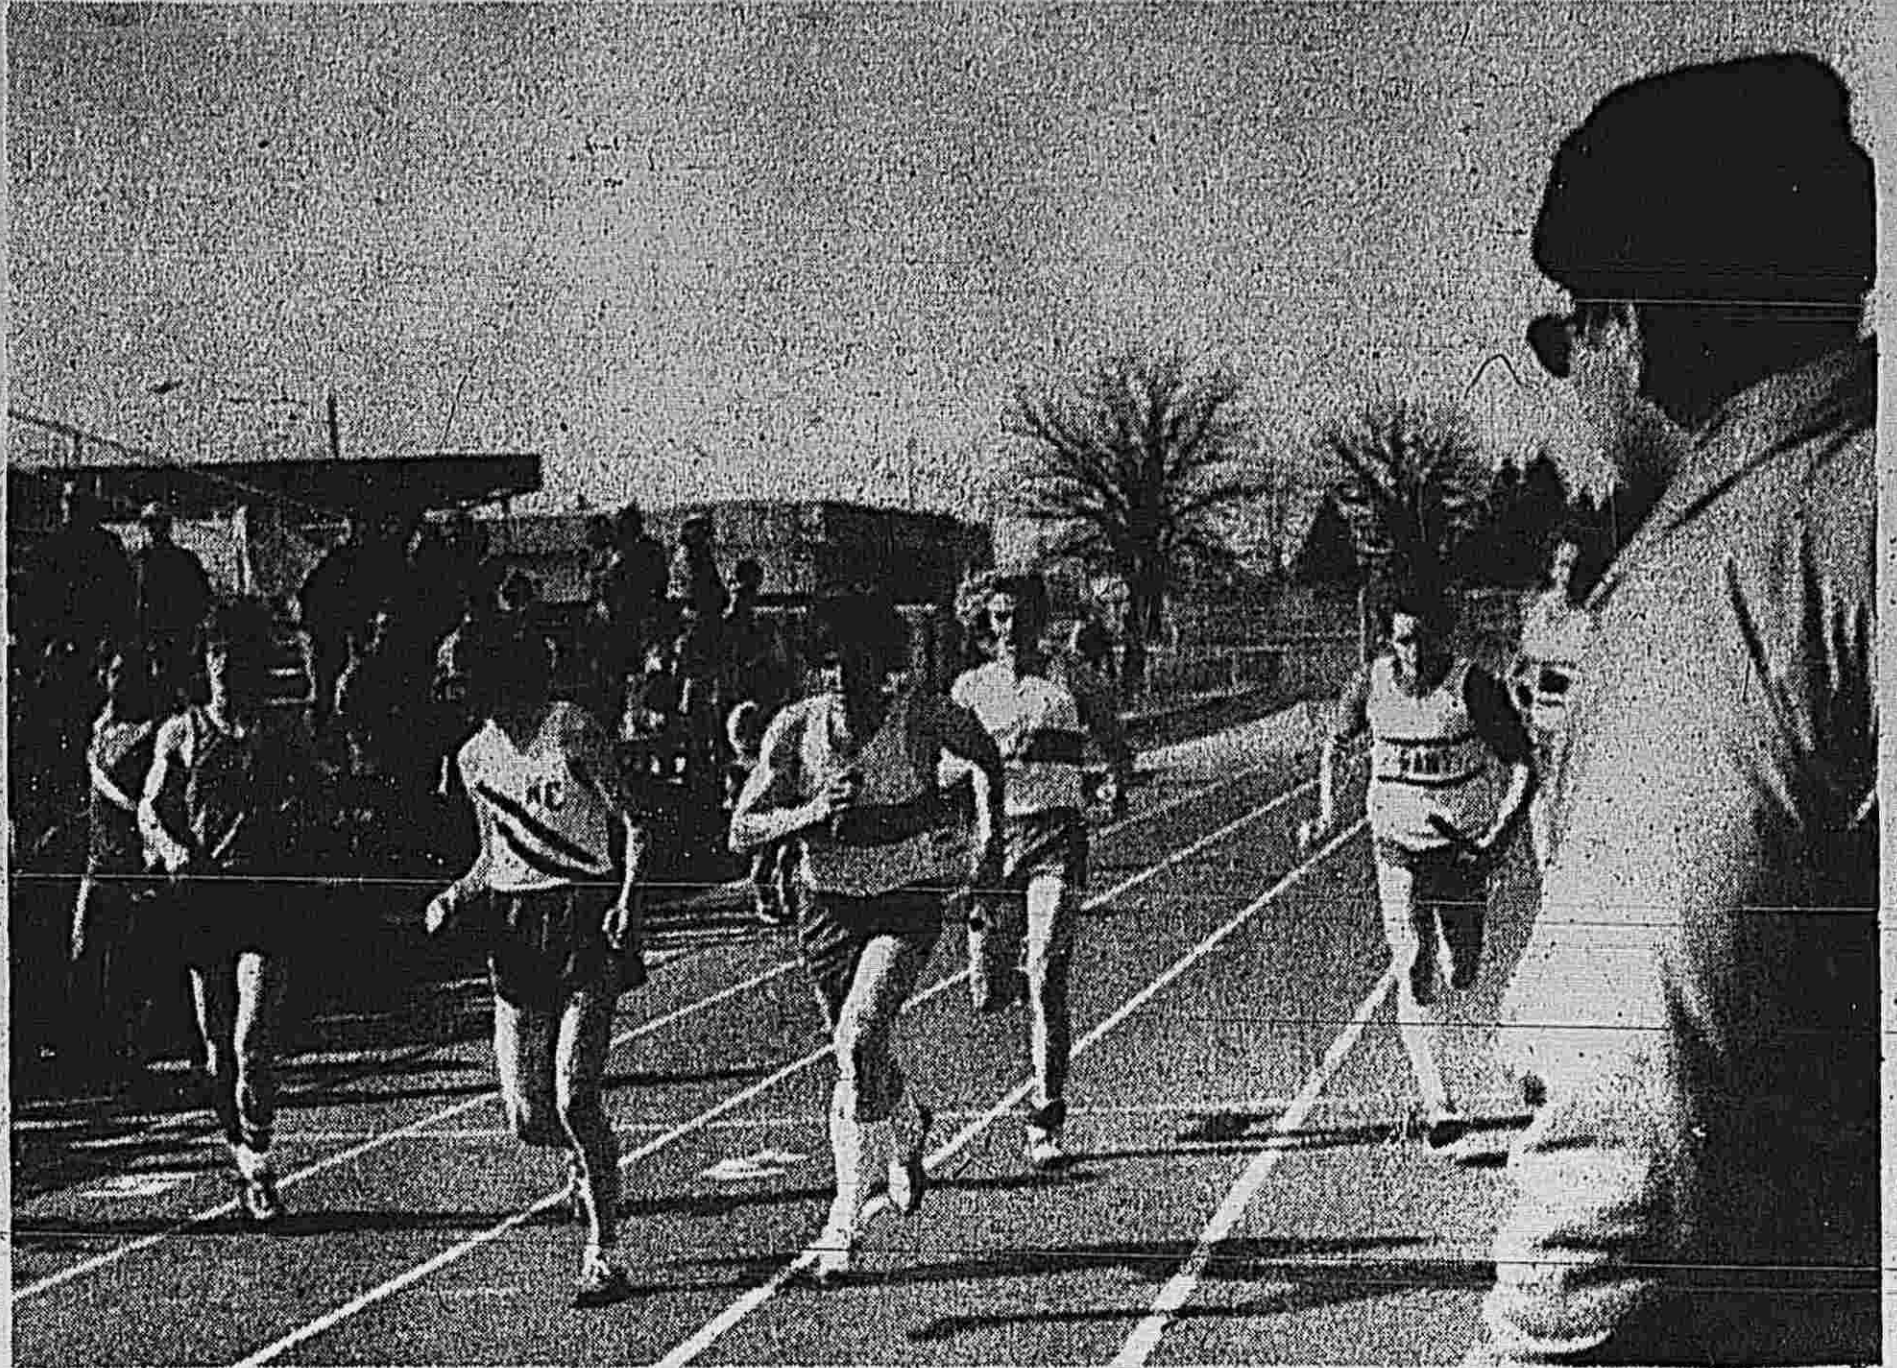

Gary Manual and Jim Nikolai lost the first set at second doubles 3-6, but won the second 7-5 to bring the match to a third set.

Nikolai and Manual led five games to three with add-in on their serve, match point. This happened twice as Stevenson fought back to win 7-5 and the meet 3-2.

This meet came after Antioch beat Cary Grove 5-0 to bring the season record to 7-2.

The sophomores lost their first match of the year to Cary Grove 3-2 then crunched Stevenson 5-0 to bring their record to 8-1.

The Sequoit netters now have to beat Stevenson in the conference meet to win the championship, Halpern said.

SOPHOMORE ANDY DUGENSKE, center, grabs the baton from Rich Becker on the third leg of the relay race at the North Chicago

Relay track meet last Saturday. The relay team finished fourth at the meet.

Hermit crabs, goose are Pet Parade winners

Winners of Grass Lake PTO's Pet Parade held last Sunday included hermit crabs, a goose, cats and a bike-riding dog.

Best of Show was won by Mike Mattson, a fourth grader, with his pet goose named Sam.

Christine Schultz, fifth grader, won the First Place trophy for Miscellaneous animals for her hermit crabs — Curly, Larry and Moe.

First place winner in the cat category was Karrol Knutson, fourth grader, for her cat Buffy. Second place cat winner was Suzette

Samson, sixth grader, for her pet Tigger.

Jerry Young, who is in kindergarten, and his dog Grizzly, a poodle, won first place in the dog contest. Joy Whitehead, fifth grader, and her bike-riding dog Duchess received second prize in the dog category.

PTO officers extended a special thanks to Principal Richard Hogan, who was the emcee for the event, for allowing the school to hold the parade in the gym.

Judges were Nancy and Bryan Lewkowicz of L and R Pet Shop and did a "marvelous job," PTO officers said.

"We sincerely appreciate the time and effort they put forth in making our event a day to remember," pet parade chairman Ardeen Harris said.

"All the boys and girls who entered their pets should be congratulated for the excellent way they conducted themselves and their pets," she added.

Driver's ed to be offered this summer to residents

Antioch Community High School will again offer Driver Education to all students living in the Antioch Community High School district. The course is open to any Antioch High School district resident between the ages of 15 and one-half and 21.

In order to enroll for the summer program, the school is requiring the prospective student reach his or her 16th birthday by Dec. 19.

Applications for the summer program can be obtained at the high school and should be completed and returned to Ward Lear before June 8. The only cost involved is for materials and the cost of a permit.

The program will consist of three integrated phases - 33 hours of classroom instruction, 12 hours of simulation laboratory, and three to four hours of behind-the-wheel street instruction.

Antioch High School is fortunate in having simulation in the driver education program of instruction, Lear said. Through the use of simulators, instruction can be improved and from the standpoint of economics, group instruction makes possible a substantial reduction in dual-control car time.

Costs, therefore, are greatly reduced, he said. By using simulation in the high school driver education, the students develop better driving habits, greater skills, better attitudes, plus many emergency situations can be taught with complete safety, Lear added.

With the use of simulation, an instructor can teach 12 students at a time instead of just one student as in a street instruction situation. Twelve hours of work in a simulator is equivalent to about three hours of instruction on the street.

Lear said simulation is more than a simple replacement of the car. "It is a laboratory tool that enables the student to practice driving techniques in a variety of driving situations."

He continued, "What is seen on the screen represents the view through the windshield of a car. As they drive, students are confronted with situations requiring responses such as signal, brake, shift, steer, decelerate - in fact, all the responses that might be required in a car on an actual street."

"Driving action can be monitored by the system to provide the instructor with a progress report of the individual student and class as a group. Perhaps the most important feature - simulation can expose the student to potentially hazardous traffic situations without risk to himself or others," he explained.

The simulation car is 48 inches long, 29 inches wide, 28 inches high, and weighs 250 pounds. The driving compartment contains the actual controls and instruments of a popular American automobile.

The results of operation facilitates the transfer of learning from the simulator to the real car. The final product is a more efficient and safe user of our highway system, Lear said.

Cars for the on-street instruction will again be furnished by two of the automobile dealers in Antioch. Those furnishing cars for the program are: Lyons-Ryan Ford and John Teresi Chevrolet-Oldsmobile.

"The driver education program probably would not be possible without the help of these fine local firms," Lear said.

Blood pressure screening

A blood pressure screening clinic will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, May 9, at the Antioch Township Public Library on Main Street.

At the clinic, sponsored by the Lake County Health Department, nurses will screen individuals for high blood pressure and refer those with elevated blood pressure to a physician for medical evaluation.

Instruction for diets, medications and other aspects of controlling high blood pressure are offered to persons referred by their physician.

All adults are welcome and no appointment is necessary.

"When an individual's high blood pressure is controlled, the risk of stroke, heart attack and kidney failure is greatly reduced," said Dr. Steven R. Patsic, executive director of the Lake County Health Department.

For further information, call the Hypertension Program, Lake County Health Department, 689-6715.

"I am still learning."

GET OUT YOUR broken vacuum cleaner, old boxes or torn-up rugs ... in other words, all that junk that has been taking up space in your basement, attic or garage all winter! May 7 through May 11 has been scheduled as Clean-Up Week in Antioch and the village crew will go around and haul away all the unwanted items you want to throw out. Thank heaven for those wonderful men!

I SURE HOPE ALL of Antioch's grade school kids remembered to say something nice about their moms and then enter it in the "Mother of the Year" contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry. The deadline for entries was last Monday, April 30, and now it is up to the judges to determine the best essay and who will win all those prizes for "Mom of the Year." We'll all know by next week's Antioch News!

WHAT ABOUT THIS comment I heard recently from one of my friends:

"Everyone knows Charlie's Angels, but does anyone know about 'Bud's Broads?'"

IT'S A GIRL! And it is the first grandchild for Larry and Barb Lass of Antioch. Their son Larry and daughter-in-law Nancy had a baby girl, Theresa Marie, last Friday April 27 in Pomona Park, Fla. The baby weighed eight pounds, 15 and one-half ounces at birth.

Larry is a 1974 graduate of Antioch High School and Nancy is from Silver Lake, Wis. The maternal grandparents, Paul and Wanda Dankert, were formerly of Silver Lake but now reside near their daughter in Crescent City, Fla. Congratulations to the new mom and dad ... and to the new grandparents!

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO Sue Koppa, owner of the Gilded Cage, who will celebrate on May 4. Happy birthday also to someone special who will blow out the candles on the same day, Jerry Nasenbeny.

On Saturday, May 5, Rich Higgins will celebrate his birthday, probably out on the golf course, where he thinks he belongs! Have you seen the Flying Nun recently, Rich?

HAPPY BELATED BIRTHDAY to Christa Badame, who blew out two candles last Monday, April 30. Christa celebrated cake and ice cream with her mom and dad, Joe and Carol Badame of "Weasels" pizza.

FOR ANY OF YOU who might have missed it, last week a terrific movie was shown at the Antioch Theatre — "Coming Home" — starring Jon Voight (best actor of the year) and Jane Fonda (best actress of the year). And believe me, that love scene was something else!

CONGRATULATIONS TO Bertha Laudando of Burlington, Wis., a friend of the Badames, who won a microwave oven in the Homemakers '79 Cooking Show sponsored by Lakeland Newspapers. Bertha told me she really could use the microwave oven, and it's the best thing she has ever won in her life! (Incidentally, the oven was donated by Petti Brothers TV and Appliances and Lakeland Newspapers).
